

Toward Healing and Reconciliation: Listening and Learning

This autumn we will be hearing the stories of and learning from three survivors of residential schools. They will share not only their experiences of different schools but their knowledge of history, politics, and current affairs. The first session presented by Mike Cheena, First Nations Historical Issues and Residential Schools Indoctrination, was held on Wednesday, September 25.

You won't want to miss:

Aboriginal Education and Modern Urban Native Issues presented by Kim McDougall on Thursday, October 3

Residential Schools – History, Stories and the Legal Saga presented by Murray Crowe on Thursday, October 10

The sessions begin at 6PM with dinner for a suggested donation of $10 and the session begins at 7PM.

We wrap up the series with an Aboriginal Feast of Thanksgiving on Wednesday, October 16 at 6PM,

Please register for each of these evenings so that we can ensure we have a seat waiting for you at the table. Registration is available online at www.TheRedeemer.ca or by calling the church office at 416.922.4948
