

---

In for the Long Haul: Part Two

Nearly 40 people from 13 parishes came together on Monday, September 21 to hear about some of the events and conversations that have taken place since the release of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission report. Stephen Allen was at the events in Ottawa during the reports release and is shown here presenting some of the highlights of his time there. Further details about upcoming events that arise from the presentations and conversation during the evening will be shared as soon as they are available. Stay tuned!

