

Church of the Redeemer

Website Guidelines

Purpose of the Church of the Redeemer Website

1. To inform interested people about our community and to invite them to visit us.
2. To be a communications tool among the members of the congregation.

Ownership

All content on the site is the property of the Church of the Redeemer, unless otherwise copyrighted. Any reproduction, publication or transmission of this content by any other person or organization is prohibited without the written permission of the Church of the Redeemer.

Editorial

No single individual will make decisions about the website. The Communications Committee will provide an on-going role of supervision, evaluation, proofing and decision-making. Decisions regarding content will take into account the primary purpose of the website as well as the available time of volunteer web developer(s). Written permission from the source will be obtained before any copyrighted material is used on the site. Links to other sites will be kept to a minimum. All requests for links must be made to the Communications Committee, which will consult with the Advisory Board prior to approving any such requests.

Security and Privacy

The Church of the Redeemer has a privacy policy dated November 1, 2009. All content on the website will be handled in accordance with this policy.