Welcome: Steven Mackison

Opening Song: “Under Pressure” – Freddie Mercury

✠ The Gathering of the Community

Please rise as you are able

The Greeting: Steven Mackison

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People: And also with you.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: Grant us, Lord God, a vision of your world as your love would have it:
a world where the weak are protected, and none go hungry or poor;
a world where the riches of creation are shared, and everyone can enjoy them;
a world where different races and cultures live in harmony and mutual respect;
a world where peace is built with justice, and justice is guided by love.
Give us the inspiration and courage to build it, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

Please be seated

First Reading: Paul Pynkoski

Reader: A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel.

For thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Psalm 100: Steven Mackison

Priest: Be joyful in God, all you lands:
worship with gladness
and come before God's presence with a song.

All: Know this: the Most High is God, who made us and claims us,
who leads us and shepherds us.

Priest: Enter the holy gates with thanksgiving;
go into God's temple with praise;
give thanks and call upon the name of God.

All: For our God is good,
everlasting in mercy:
God's faithfulness endures from age to age.

Second Reading: Paul Pynkoski

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1.15-23

All: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Susan Haig

Please rise as you are able

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

(Jesus said:) “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’ Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?’ And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’

Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’ Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’ And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

✠ The Celebration of the Eucharist: Steven Mackison

The Prayer Over the Gifts

Priest: Gracious God, you gather us before your throne of glory,
and feed us with the life of Jesus.
Receive all we offer you this day and fill us with the hope to which you have called us.
This we pray, in the name of the Sovereign One,
Jesus Christ, our Redeemer. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the all the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join in their unending hymn.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, you have brought us this far along our journey, lifting us up from the dust even when we have fallen short of your glory.

In times of bitterness you did not abandon us, but guided us into the path of love and light.
In every age you sent angels to whisper your message of love without measure.
In every age, you sent your prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity.

The cry of the poor has become your own cry;
and our hunger and thirst for justice is your own desire, which you have entrusted to our fragile wills and restless hearts.
In the fullness of time, you sent your son to preach good news to the afflicted, to break bread with the outcast and the despised,
and to ransom those in bondage to prejudice and sin.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
“Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”
After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and offered it for all, saying:
“This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”
For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim this truth:

All: Christ has died. Christ is Risen. Christ will come again.

Priest: Send your Holy Spirit, our advocate, to fill the hearts of all who share this bread and cup with courage and wisdom, to pursue love and justice in all the world.

Join our prayers and praise with your prophets and martyrs of every age, that, rejoicing in the hope of the resurrection,
we might live in the freedom and hope of your Son.
Through him, with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Priest: “I am the bread of life,” says the Lord.
“Whoever comes to me will never be hungry;
whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

People: Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

Priest: The gifts of God for the People of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Yes-vember

As we move through these strange and challenging days, the pastoral care team thought it might be a good idea to look at this month as Yes-vember instead of November. "Yes" means focussing on the positive and uplifting aspects of life even as we see the days become darker and colder and the uncertainties about our world drag on.

To keep a "Yes" in our minds, we want to send out a daily suggestion for some music that might brighten the sunnier part of your soul and give you a lift. Listen when you can, but starting your day with the song might set the positive tone that will help make the rest of the day go just a bit more joyfully. Maybe you can let the music remind you of your connection to the Redeemer community and feel the love.

To receive a song each day until the end of the month, please sign up.

The Common Table: Update and Call for Volunteers

Street homelessness is drastically increasing during the pandemic. To respond to this need, the Common Table has shifted to doing two days of street outreach by visiting encampments that are growing in areas close to the church including Yorkville, delivering food, supplies, and providing ongoing connections and support. Monday through Wednesday the hot food service at the side doors of the church continues. On Thursdays and Fridays staff and volunteers will be on foot in the community, packed with supplies. We are excited about this endeavour! You can help by offering your prayers, your support, and your hands. There are volunteer opportunities both on-site and at home. Can you help? Please get in touch with Angie for more information about where help is needed.

Our Bell Tolls

Our bell tolls at noon on Wednesdays to raise awareness of overdose deaths in our city. Each toll represents one person who is loved and who mattered. We honour the lives we have lost and stand in solidarity with the poor who are forgotten and neglected.

Parish Cycle of Prayer

Each month a cycle of prayer is available online. This resource provides the names of ministries from the Anglican Communion, the Indigenous cycle of prayer, the diocese and our community to hold in our prayers each day. In peace we pray. Lord, Hear our prayer.

Flowers in Memory or Thanksgiving

As we come together for worship in the church building again, it is possible for flowers in memory or in thanksgiving to be placed on the reredos. If you would like to dedicate flowers for an upcoming Sunday, the cost is $75/vase (or $150 if you wish to contribute the cost for both vases). Please contact Marjorie for details.

Parking Update

For many years members of the parish have parked at the Bedford Road Green P parking lot and had their parking receipt stamped for free parking on Sunday mornings. At this time, it seems that the parking lot is unstaffed. We expect this is done out of an abundance of caution for the health of staff who work at the parking lot. This means free parking can no longer be offered at this time. We will provide updates as often as they are available.
