WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

The Greeting

Steven Mackison

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People: And also with you.

The Collect of the Day

Steven Mackison

Priest: God of the dirtied hands, the wandering feet:
you seek out the lost before they ever turn to you.
Take us with you into the abandoned places to find a new community outside our fortress walls;
through Jesus Christ, the Searching One. Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Catherine Emerson

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse — a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them. “For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good.” I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro. I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled. I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the Lord, before his fierce anger. For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Jeremiah 4.11-12, 22-28

All: Thanks be to God.

A moment of silence is observed

Psalm 14 (George Black)

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain:

Our God looks down from heaven up-on us all.

Fools have said in their hearts, "There is no God."

All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is none who does any good.

God looks down from heaven upon us all,
to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is one who seeks after God. Refrain

Our God looks down from heaven up-on us all.

Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have turned bad;
there is none who does good; no, not one.
Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers who eat up my people like bread and do not call upōn God? Refrain

See how they tremble with fear, because God is in the company of the righteous.
Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted,
but God is their refuge.
Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion!
when God restores the fortunes of the people,
Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad. Refrain

Second Reading

Catherine Emerson

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy.

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners — of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

1 Timothy 1.12-17

All: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Steven Mackison

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

Luke 15.1-10

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Steven Mackison

We pause for music and meditation

Meditation: "Agnus Dei" (Missa Brevis #4, Healey Willan)

Redeemer Music Team

The Prayers of the People

Abigail Young

Leader: Let us pray to God who loves us, holding the mixture of our experiences, feelings, and lives. In the pauses, please add your own prayers silently or aloud. We will respond to the words, "God of love" with the words,

All: "Hear our prayer".

Leader: Let us pray for the Church. As we explore new patterns of worship, as we return to programs, as we continue our ministry, we hold the excitement and the anxiety, the joys and the sorrows, the hopes and the griefs.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Draw us together as your body, and help us bear faithful witness to you,
God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for students and teachers, and all who return to the classroom this fall. At the start of the new school year, we hold the joys and the worries, the excitement and the anxiety.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Give them inquiring minds, the gift of wonder, and a sense of your presence in all their learning and their playing.

God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for workers and retirees, for those in a change and those continuing in their work. We hold the ways their work satisfies and is a struggle, for those without work and those looking for work.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

May they find joy and challenge, opportunity, and ways to live into their vocations.

God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for the world, for those who have been harmed by violence, and for those who live in peace; for those currently experiencing violence, and those who bear its weight many years later.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Bring your Kingdom's healing, peace, and compassion for all.

God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for those in any kind of need, in sickness or in health, in wealth or in poverty, in body, mind or spirit.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Comfort those in need, support those who support others.

God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for those who have died, and those who grieve them. Both recently and those lives who continue to touch ours to this day.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Draw them into the warmth of your presence with all the saints.

God of love,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Loving God, we are grateful for the ways you sustain us. Be with us as we journey forward, form us to be your people. We ask all these things, in Jesus Christ our Redeemer,

All: Amen.

The Peace

Steven Mackison

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Hymn: #703 (Gather) "Song of St. Patrick"

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain:

May the Spir-it of Christ be our hope through the day, be our guard through the night, our com-pan-ion on the way.

Let us be God's jus - tice and mer - cy, Hands and feet of Christ.

Spir - it be the light be - fore us, Gen - tle be our path-way.

The Lord's Prayer

Steven Mackison

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be, to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing of Backpacks

Steven Mackison

Priest: God of fresh starts and new beginnings,
We bring ourselves, our big feelings, and our bags to you.
As we enter a new school year, we bring our hopes and our fears,
our dreams and our uncertainties to you.
In these bags we carry what we need for the coming days,
Lunches, pens, pencils, notebooks, and more,
And we carry in us, the questions, the feelings, and our expectations that swirl in times of change.
In the face of this new season, prepare the way,
meet us in strangers and in friends,
Teach us to trust more deeply in you
And shape us into the people you call us to become.
And may the God who journeys with us along the way,
Bless these bags, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Ministry Updates Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews. The order of service is on our website (theredeemer.ca).

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. Looking ahead, this group will take a two-week break on September 20 and 27, returning October 4. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website with a link shared on the Facebook page. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

Garden Eucharists this Autumn

Our Garden Eucharists at the home of Karen and Michael Visser will continue throughout the autumn, weather permitting. Please join us on these Saturday afternoons:

Saturday September 24 at 4:00 p.m.

Saturday October 22, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday November 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday December 31, at 1:00 p.m.

More information will be forthcoming as the Garden Eucharist Saturday approaches, but we wanted you to mark your calendars now. If you have any questions, please be in touch with Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) or Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Floral Dedications

Floral dedications provide a wonderful way to express our personal thanksgiving and remembrances. If you would like to provide chancel flowers, please email the necessary information to the church office (office@theredeemer.ca).

Prices range from $150 for chancel flowers if there is only one dedication on a Sunday, or $75 if there are multiple dedications.

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Be Still

Continued uncertainty surrounding the pandemic and the spectre of war unabated in the world has added to the frenzied and hectic rhythm of our daily lives. It is time to Be Still.

From 5 to 8 PM on Sunday evenings the doors of the church will be open to offer those who enter an opportunity to be still, to pray, and to give over their cares to God during this time of spiritual rest and refreshment.

Sunday Worship Leadership - Online

There are plenty of ways you can support our Zoom worship service with your gift of time.

Zoom Moderators - you enjoy the technical aspects of how we gather online for worship and help by opening our virtual doors and supporting the musicians, clergy and lay worship leaders. You have grace under pressure to manage when technology throws a curve at you.

Greeters - you welcome the community as we arrive before the start of the service and engage with those who linger afterwards for fellowship.

Readers and Intercessors - help to tell the stories of faith by reading scripture or call the community to prayer by leading the prayers of the people.

Please contact Susan Graham Walker (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca), Part-time Interim Administrator to volunteer or for more information.

EarthSong

Save the date – Sunday, October 2 at 7 PM. This service will launch our 2022 Season of Creation and will be both in the church and on Zoom. Details to follow.

In the Community

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

All who attend worship services in the church building are invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Hymn Book Giveaway

We have a surplus of Gather and Common Praise hymn books and invite members of the community to take a copy of either (or both) home. They will be available through September at the back of the church or can be held by emailing Susan Graham Walker (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca). Donations are always welcome.

Open Doors During the Week

As we begin to establish some new and renewed patterns, one piece of our common life we would like to rekindle is having our church building open during the weekday. We have an opportunity to be a place of prayer, stillness, or curiosity about what the church looks like for the neighbour, the sojourner, or the seeker who passes by our open doors. Having members of the community available to offer a word of welcome is an important part of our presence. If you have a couple of hours available during daytime hours and are interested in learning more about how you can be part of this, please contact Part-time Interim Administrator, Susan Graham Walker (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca).

Temporary Housing Needed for a Refugee Family

There is hopeful news that the family Redeemer is sponsoring may arrive as soon as three months from now! At this time, the Refugee Committee is looking for temporary housing (up to six weeks) for a family of eight—two parents and six boys, the youngest a baby. As you know, housing is so expensive in Toronto. If you own or know of an empty house or apartment or condo that could be used to house this family for a few weeks, this would be extremely helpful. If you have an idea for housing, please contact Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca) or Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com).

The Redeemer Refugee Committee

We are always looking for new members. We help to orient newcomers by greeting them at the airport, finding language training for adults, registering children in school, furnishing housing, and much more. If you would like to be part of our wonderful committee, please contact Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com) or Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca).

Children, Youth and Families

As we come to the end of the summer, our volunteers are beginning to get ready for the fall for our Children, Youth, and Families Ministries! We have resources available in church for children and all families are invited to participate in worship together.

Our regular Church School and Youth Group gatherings will return today as we celebrate the new beginnings of the school year with a blessing of Backpacks! (Bring your bags to church!) Children and youth programs start at 9:30 AM and families are encouraged to join the 10:30 service. If you have children or youth who are school aged, feel free to contact Andrew Kuhl to get on our contact list!

Over the summer, Pyjama Prayers (on Zoom) has been taking a break while we dream and plan for new forms of family ministry in the fall. Ideas have been percolating so keep your eyes open for an email for some feedback in the coming week! If you are a family with young children interested in programming, please contact Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Blessing the Backpacks

Bring your backpack, bookbag or tote to church today for our annual blessing of the backpacks. All ages are welcome to bring a bag to participate, if you are starting new work or newly into retirement, if you are returning to the office or to school. Bring your bag on Zoom or in person to be blessed!

Blessing the Pilgrims

On Sunday, September 18 we will offer a blessing to our Pilgrims. They will be heading off to Spain and walking the Camino starting later that week, and we will send them off with our prayers.

An Invitation from the Spanish Pilgrims

Most of the pilgrims will be departing for Spain on Monday September 19. As we prepare and as we walk the Camino, we ask for your prayers and support. We would also like to invite you to share your burdens and cares, or hopes and dreams with us, to let us carry them with our own to the tomb of St. James in Santiago.

You can do this in two ways: first by emailing Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) and letting her know what it is you would like the pilgrims to carry or to pray about. The other option is to write them on a small piece of paper, enclose it in a small envelope, and place it into the blue Camino knapsack that will be at the front of the church on the lectern at the 10:30 Sunday service on the 11th and 18th of September. Be assured that your message will be confidential.

Pilgrims walk for themselves and they walk for others. Let us do that for you!

How Are You Doing?

Our clergy are available to meet with you to talk and for prayer as is helpful to you. You can contact them through the church office (416-922-4948) or by email (Steven Mackison – smackison@theredeemer.ca, Susan Haig – shaig@theredeemer.ca, Andrew Kuhl akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Pastoral Care Calls

Volunteers from the pastoral care team continue to call members of the Redeemer community to check in with them. Please contact Tony Crosbie (tony.crosbie@sympatico.ca) if you know someone who would benefit from a call from one of the pastoral care team.

Bulletin Announcements

If you have an announcement you would like included in an upcoming bulletin, please send it to Marjorie Wrightson (mwrightson@theredeemer.ca) by Tuesday at 5 PM. Thank you.

Support Us

Last year was one where hopes for a return to life as it once was, seemed within reach and still not yet. Through it all, we have worshipped, learned, served and celebrated together. In the midst of on-going uncertainty, there is still much to be grateful for. If you have not already done so this year, please consider reviewing your financial support of our vital ministry. If your givings need to remain the same or be reduced - thank you for your continuing donations. Your gifts make a difference. If you have the capacity to increase your givings or to give for the first time, we are grateful.

Beyond Our Walls

Bible Remixed – Fall Course Offering

"Love Goes All the Way Down: Discovering the Old Testament God" is an online course offered by Dr. Sylvia Keesmaat from September 25 – October 30 on Zoom. Do you struggle with popular depictions of the Old Testament "God of Wrath"? We will explore how this tragic misreading of the text has suppressed the compassionate character of the Creator throughout the story. Registration and further information are available online at <https://www.bibleremixed.ca/>. You can also share information about this on social media by sharing the links on the Bible Remixed Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/bibleremixed>
