WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

The Greeting

Steven Mackison

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 and the love of God,
 and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People: And also with you.

The Collect of the Day

Steven Mackison

Priest: O God, anoint us with the healing Spirit of consolation and joy, so that we may rejoice in the richness of your love and be faithful stewards of your many gifts through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Henry Krol

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.

Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land:

‘Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?’

(‘Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?’)

‘The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.’

For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?

Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Jeremiah 8.18-9.1

All: Thanks be to God.

Hallelujah!

Give praise, you servants öf God; *
praise the name / of the Most High.

Let the name of God be blëssed, *
from this time forth / for evermore.

God is high above all nätions, *
exalted above / the heavens.

Who is like our God, who sits enthroned ön high, *
but stoops to behold the heaven / and the earth?

Who takes up the weak out of thë dust. *
and lifts up the poor from / the ashes.

Who sets them with the rülers, *
with the rulers of / the people.

Who makes the woman of a childlëss house *
to be a joyful mother / of children.

Second Reading

Henry Krol

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy.

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

1 Timothy 2.1-7

All: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Margaret Rodrigues

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then Jesus said to the disciples, ‘There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, ‘‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’’ Then the manager said to himself, ‘‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’’ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘‘How much do you owe my master?’’ He answered, ‘‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’’ He said to him, ‘‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’’ Then he asked another, ‘‘And how much do you owe?’’ He replied, ‘‘A hundred containers of wheat.’’ He said to him, ‘‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’’ And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

Priest: The Gospel of Christ.

Luke 16.1-13

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

We pause for music and meditation

Meditation: ‘‘Bist du bei mir’’ (J.S. Bach)

Redeemer Music Team

The Prayers of the People

Karen Turner

Leader: Loving and gracious God, we gather together in prayer in times of trouble. Silently, aloud, or in the chat, we voice our petitions and thanksgivings in the pauses.

Leader: We pray for your church throughout the world. Where we have strayed, show us the path. Where we see clearly, give us the courage to speak your truth. Raise in us the balm of Giliad for your creation, for the poor and dispossessed. We pray especially for King Charles III, who assumes the mantle of leadership in the Church of England.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for the world. We remember especially the people of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth. We pray for the victims of war. Give strength to the peacemakers, often working in difficult circumstances. Help us to recognize the systems that oppress the poor, defile your creation, uproot the refugee. Often it is these systems that create the conditions for war and violence. We pray for the peace that passes all understanding.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for our country. We pray for our political and Indigenous leaders, that together with your church, we may bring about the reconciliation with our neighbour that is at the heart of your gospel. We give thanks for all who have offered themselves as candidates in the upcoming municipal elections. We pray for the people of Quebec as they prepare to vote in their provincial election.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for our community. We give thanks for the many volunteers and staff who facilitate our shared ministry. We remember especially our Refugee Committee and Common Table leadership. We are a pilgrim people. Be with us on our journeys, wherever we happen to be. We wish 'BUEN CAMINO' to those pilgrims leaving for Spain. We pray for the sick, those in distress, and all who care for them.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: We give thanks for the life and witness of those who have died. We give thanks especially for the life and service of Queen Elizabeth. We remember others in our community who have died. Comfort those who mourn.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: Finally, we give thanks for all the blessings you have bestowed on us. We give thanks for abundant harvests, for teachers and students building new relationships, for the opportunity to celebrate a wedding, anniversary, baptism, or birthday. All we have comes from our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, and we offer our prayers in your name.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Steven Mackison

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Lord's Prayer

Steven Mackison

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Ministry Updates

Gift of Stoles

The stoles dedicated today are given to the Church of the Redeemer by Sylvia M. McPhee and Jean E. McPhee. They were commissioned to be made by Sandra Campbell, an Indigenous artist and member of our community, and a pastoral care worker with Toronto Urban Native Ministries. These stoles evoke themes of Psalm 150 with Indigenous motifs.

Flower Dedication

The chancel flowers are placed to the glory of God and in thanksgiving for the life and devoted service of Queen Elizabeth II, in gratitude from members of the Church of the Redeemer.

Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what’s on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews. The order of service is on our website (theredeemer.ca).

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. Looking ahead, this group will take a two-week break on September 20 and 27, returning October 4. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website with a link shared on the Facebook page. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

Garden Eucharists this Autumn

Our Garden Eucharists at the home of Karen and Michael Visser will continue throughout the autumn, weather permitting. Please join us on these Saturday afternoons:

Saturday September 24 at 4:00 PM

Saturday October 22, at 1:00 PM

Saturday November 26, at 1:00 PM

Saturday December 31, at 1:00 PM

More information will be forthcoming as the Garden Eucharist Saturday approaches, but we wanted you to mark your calendars now. If you have any questions, please be in touch with Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) or Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Floral Dedications

Floral dedications provide a wonderful way to express our personal thanksgiving and remembrances. If you would like to provide chancel flowers, please email the necessary information to the church office (office@theredeemer.ca).

Prices range from $200 + tax for chancel flowers if there is only one dedication on a Sunday, or $100 if there are multiple dedications.

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Be Still

Continued uncertainty surrounding the pandemic and the spectre of war unabated in the world has added to the frenzied and hectic rhythm of our daily lives. It is time to Be Still.

From 5 to 8 PM on Sunday evenings the doors of the church will be open to offer those who enter an opportunity to be still, to pray, and to give over their cares to God during this time of spiritual rest and refreshment.

Season of Creation 2022 – What if ... the Churches Took Climate Change Seriously?

EarthSong

A service of music, readings, and an address by The Honourable Elizabeth May, M.P. Saanich-Gulf Islands on the territory of the WSÁNEĆ Nation on Sunday, October 2 at 7 PM both in-person and on Zoom. Registration on www.theredeemer.ca will be open soon.

In the Community

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

All who attend worship services in the church building are invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Hymn Book Giveaway

We have a surplus of Gather and Common Praise hymn books and invite members of the community to take a copy of either (or both) home. They will be available through September at the back of the church or can be held by emailing Susan Graham Walker (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca). Donations are always welcome.

Open Doors Consultation

Join us for another in a series of consultations on Redeemer's future ministry. We will focus on what it means to have Open Doors and how we can do that physically as well as show our commitment to this principle in other areas of our common life. This gathering will take place in person at the church and online through Zoom on Wednesday, September 21 at 5:30 PM. The link for registration and the Zoom link was in Friday's eNews.

Season of Creation 2022

Panel Discussion – What if ... Churches in the Anglican Diocese of Toronto Took Climate Change Seriously?

Join us on Tuesday, October 4 at 7 PM for a panel discussion moderated by Andrew Asbil, Bishop of Toronto. Registration will be open soon on www.theredeemer.ca.

What if ... We All Became Farmers for a Day?

This all-ages activity takes place at the Common Table Urban Farm, located on the grounds of the Church of Our Saviour, 1 Laurentide Drive in North York on Saturday, October 15 from 1-4 PM. Rain or shine, join Andrew Kuhl, Katy Waugh, Sylvia Keesmaat and the Common Table farm staff to help turn the compost; prepare garden beds for winter; plant garlic, do artwork; and walk a labyrinth! Registration open soon on www.theredeemer.ca.

Marginalia

Marginalia – church school for grown-ups and the place where we at Redeemer meet to learn, ponder, and debate the puzzles of the Bible and the Mysteries of Faith – returns!

Sunday morning at 9:30 AM in the church:

September 11 and 18: Six Rules for Reading the Bible (Wraps up today)

October 9 and 23: The Theology of Food: Wisdom From Leviticus

November 27 and December 11: Kingdom Come: Praying the Future with Jesus

Registration open soon on www.theredeemer.ca for the October and November/December series. Contact Nate Wall (nwall@theredeemer.ca) for more information.

Start Here: Ways into Christianity

Curious about Christian spirituality, or looking to explore it again from the beginning? Check out our fall program Start Here: Ways into Christianity. The first three-part series looks at three signature Christian beliefs—let's call them “word,” “water,” and “table.” The series has now been scheduled for Wednesday nights in October (Oct. 12, 19, 26) at 7 PM. Register at www.theredeemer.ca or e-mail Nate Wall (nwall@theredeemer.ca).

Temporary Housing Needed for a Refugee Family

There is hopeful news that the family Redeemer is sponsoring may arrive as soon as three months from now! At this time, the Refugee Committee is looking for temporary housing (up to six weeks) for a family of eight—two parents and six boys, the youngest a baby. As you know, housing is so expensive in Toronto. If you own or know of an empty house or apartment or condo that could be used to house this family for a few weeks, this would be extremely helpful. If you have an idea for housing, please contact Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca) or Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com).

Get in touch with committee member Susanna Jacob (andorrajosej@gmail.com) if you have furniture or other supplies to donate. We do not have storage facilities, but will arrange for pick-up once housing is settled. Lists of specific needs will come in the next few weeks.

Contact committee member Mary Horan (horangang@gmail.com) with clothing donations. She will provide you with specific needs and sizes.

The September update on Abdikadir and his family is available on our website (www.theredeemer.ca/get-involved/refugee-settlement).

The Redeemer Refugee Committee

We are always looking for new members. We help to orient newcomers by greeting them at the airport, finding language training for adults, registering children in school, furnishing housing, and much more. If you would like to be part of our wonderful committee, please contact Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com) or Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca).

Children, Youth and Families

As we come to the end of the summer, our volunteers are beginning to get ready for the fall for our Children, Youth, and Families Ministries! We have resources available in church for children and all families are invited to participate in worship together.

Our regular Church School and Youth Group gatherings have returned. Children and youth programs start at 9:30 AM and families are encouraged to join the 10:30 service. If you have children or youth who are school aged, feel free to contact Andrew Kuhl to get on our contact list!

Over the summer, Pyjama Prayers (on Zoom) has been taking a break while we dream and plan for new forms of family ministry in the fall. Ideas have been percolating so keep your eyes open for an email for some feedback in the coming week! If you are a family with young children interested in programming, please contact Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Hilary Keachie

Hilary has been our pastoral associate for children, youth and families for more than three years. For the past year, she has been on parental leave. She recently confirmed that she will not be returning to Redeemer at the end of her leave because she and her family have moved to Port Hope. She will be with us on Sunday, October 30 so that we can offer thanks for her ministry amongst us.

Blessing the Pilgrims

Today we will offer a blessing to our Pilgrims. They will be heading off to Spain and walking the Camino starting later this week, and we will send them off with our prayers.

An Invitation from the Spanish Pilgrims

Most of the pilgrims will be departing for Spain on Monday September 19. As we prepare and as we walk the Camino, we ask for your prayers and support. We would also like to invite you to share your burdens and cares, or hopes and dreams with us, to let us carry them with our own to the tomb of St. James in Santiago.

You can do this in two ways: first by emailing Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) and letting her know what it is you would like the pilgrims to carry or to pray about. The other option is to write them on a small piece of paper, enclose it in a small envelope, and place it into the blue Camino knapsack that will be at the front of the church on the lectern at the 10:30 Sunday service on the 11th and 18th of September. Be assured that your message will be confidential.

Pilgrims walk for themselves and they walk for others. Let us do that for you!

How Are You Doing?

Our clergy are available to meet with you to talk and for prayer as is helpful to you. You can contact them through the church office (416-922-4948) or by email (Steven Mackison – smackison@theredeemer.ca, Susan Haig – shaig@theredeemer.ca, Andrew Kuhl akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Pastoral Care Calls

Volunteers from the pastoral care team continue to call members of the Redeemer community to check in with them. Please contact Tony Crosbie (tony.crosbie@sympatico.ca) if you know someone who would benefit from a call from one of the pastoral care team.

Interim Administrator On-Site

Susan Graham Walker, the Part-time Interim Administrator, is on-site most Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 7:30 AM to 12 PM. Please don't hesitate to connect by email (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca) or text (647-215-8814).

Beyond Our Walls

Bible Remixed – Fall Course Offering

“Love Goes All the Way Down: Discovering the Old Testament God” is an online course offered by Dr. Sylvia Keesmaat from September 25 – October 30 on Zoom. Do you struggle with popular depictions of the Old Testament "God of Wrath"? We will explore how this tragic misreading of the text has suppressed the compassionate character of the Creator throughout the story.

Registration and further information are available online at <https://www.bibleremixed.ca/>. You can also share information about this on social media by sharing the links on the Bible Remixed Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/bibleremixed>

Bishop's Company Cabaret

The annual Bishop's Company cabaret is coming soon. Among the featured groups that are part of the entertainment are some familiar faces and voices - The Redeemers (theredeemers.ca). Join in on Friday, October 14 starting at 8 PM. Visit www.toronto.anglican.ca/events for more information and a registration link.
