SMALL AS A

MUSTARD SEED

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

We take time as a community to pause and to remember. In amongst the moments of new possibilities and times of enriched community, the past two and a half years have been times of grief, pain and loss. Covid-19 has taken beloved souls from family circles, caused economic hardship, and challenged how we care for our neighbour. This time has shone a light on injustice, inequity and racism that has always been there, but we have not always paid attention to. A candle shines in our midst as witness to the presence of the risen Christ. Today, we pause to hold space for all that has been lost and light candles in memory. We carry that light as we go back out into the world in hope and in joy.

Priest: When ancient Israel had suffered the great pain and tragedy of death and destruction, God said to them through the prophet Jeremiah:

Thus says the Lord:
A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping.

Rachel is weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more.

Thus says the Lord:
Keep your voice from weeping,
and your eyes from tears;
for there is a reward for your work,
says the Lord:
there is hope for your future.

Jeremiah 31:15-17a

Priest: We gather reassured that God hears the lamentation and bitter weeping of all who have beloved souls they see no more because of the pandemic, of all who seek justice as we come to terms with systemic racism, of all who search for peace in a world broken apart. May we know healing of our grief-stricken hearts. May we know wisdom and guidance in speaking truth to power and injustice. May we turn in the direction of love and hope.

Priest: We meet in the presence of God

All: who knows our needs,
hears our cries,
feels our pain,
and heals our wounds.

With this candle we remember all whose lives were lost too soon from COVID-19 and all who worked to care for them in their illness and death.

Priest: I lift up my eyes to the hills;
from where is my help to come?

All: My help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.

Priest: He will not let your foot be moved and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.

All: Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

With this candle remember all for whom peace seems far away and all who seek an end to conflict.

Priest: The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand,

All: So that the sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

*With this candle remember our hope as we face the future.
May we find comfort, solace, and strength in the midst of our pain.*

Priest: The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
it is he who shall keep you safe.

All: The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth for evermore.

All are invited to light candles in their own homes to acknowledge what has been lost

Hymn: #389 (Gather) “Return to God”

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain:

Re - turn to God with all your heart, the source of grace and mer-cy; come seek the ten-der faith-ful-ness of God.

1. Now the time of grace has come, the day of sal - va-tion; come and learn now the way of our God.

2. I will take your heart of stone and place a heart with-in you, a heart of com-

- pas-sion and love.

3. If you break the chains of op-pression, if you set the pris-'ner free;
 If you share your bread with the hun-gry, give pro-tection to the lost;
 give a shel-ter to the home-less, clothe the na-ked in your

✠ The Gathering of the Community

The Collect of the Day

Steven Mackison

Priest: God,
 you weep with those who are oppressed,
 with those who are uprooted from their homeland and with those who are without shelter or security.
 Grant that your faithful love may reach out through us,
 so that your healing mercy may rise like the dawn.
 We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son. Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Lamentations.

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.

She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting-place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter.

Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Lamentations 1.1-6

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 137 (Plainsong)

Redeemer Music Team

BY THE waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, * when we remembered / you, O Zion.

As for our harps, we hung them up * on the trees in the / midst of that land.

For those who led us away captive asked us for a song,
and our oppressors called for mirth: *
“Sing us one of the / songs of Zion.”

How shall we sing God’s song up- / on an alien soil?

If I forget you, O Jerusalem, *
let my right / hand forget its skill.

Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you, *
if I do not set Jerusalem a- / bove my highest joy.

Second Reading

Reader: A Reading from the Second Letter to Timothy.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

2 Timothy 1.1-14

All: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn: #502 (Gather) "Come to the Water"

Redeemer Music Team

1. O let all who thirst, let them come to the wa-ter.
2. And let all who seek, let them come to the wa-ter.
3. And let all who toil, let them come to the wa-ter.
4. And let all the poor, let them come to the wa-ter.

And let all who have noth-ing, let them come to the Lord:
And let all who have noth-ing, let them come to the Lord:
And let all who are wea-ry, let them come to the Lord:
Bring the ones who are lad-en, bring them all to the Lord:

With-out mon-ey, with-out price. Why should you pay the price,
With-out mon-ey, with-out strife. Why should you spend your life,
All who la-bour, with-out rest. How can your soul find rest, Bring the chil-dren with-out might. Eas-y the load and light:

ex-cept for the Lord?
ex-cept for the Lord?
ex-cept for the Lord?
come to the Lord.

The Gospel

Andrew Kuhl

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, ‘Increase our faith!’ The Lord replied, ‘If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, “Be uprooted and planted in the sea”, and it would obey you.

‘Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, “Come here at once and take your place at the table”? Would you not rather say to him, “Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink”? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, “We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!”’

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

Luke 17.5-10

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Sylvia Keesmaat

Leader: Sovereign Lord, we pray for the church universal. We ask that by your spirit of power and of love we may do our part to extend your kingdom here on earth. We pray also for our own community. We give thanks for the many volunteers and staff who facilitate our shared ministry and we ask that we might find new ways to welcome those who may wish to join our fellowship.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: God our Saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and power. We pray for all who suffer in war, and in the collapse of good government. We remember for good all those who work for peace; for all who work to alleviate the suffering of the hungry, the homeless and the dispossessed. Uphold all refugees and migrants in your loving embrace, and inspire the world to give them respite and shelter.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: Great Physician, stretch out your hand to bring comfort, wholeness and peace to all who suffer. We pray that you will sustain all those who are lonely, oppressed and anxious; all those in pain or chronic illness; and be with those who are dying. Lift up all those who work to bring healing and bring care to those in need.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: Creator God, help us to see all of the natural world as our neighbour. Bring truth to the public discourse about the climate change emergency and give us all the wisdom and resolve to do our part to bring healing and wholeness to the whole earth.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: God our Maker, we pray for our work. May we each learn to use the particular gifts and talents you have given us. Help all those whose work is unfulfilling, stressful or fraught with danger. Uphold in your mercy, all who are unemployed, that they might find hope for the future, and practical and emotional support in the present. Give rest and respite to all who are weary.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: God our Lord, and giver of all good gifts, we thank you for this day; for generosity in meeting our needs; and for all that is beautiful and gracious in the world and in our lives.

During this pause, please add your prayers silently, aloud, or in the chatbox

Lord hear us.

All: Lord graciously hear us.

Leader: Let us commend ourselves, and all for whom we pray, to the mercy and protection of God.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Steven Mackison

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Lord's Prayer

Steven Mackison

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Holy Jesus we receive you in this moment, giving you thanks and praise that you make yourself present to all your people in the bread and wine of the Eucharist.
Transform our hearts that we may shine as your light in dark places;
Where there is hatred, let us sow love; Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.
And this all, in love for you. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

The Covenant of Hope

Priest: We go out into the world holding the memory of whose lives were lost to COVID-19 in the promise and hope of God’s eternal love.

All: In the assurance of your love, we hold on to hope.

Priest: We go out into the world holding the memory of all people whose lives were lost from systemic racism or any form of hate seeking justice and mercy.

All: In the assurance of your love, we hold on to hope.

Priest: We go out into the world bearing the peace that we seek in our world in the name of the one who is the Prince of Peace.

All: In the assurance of your love, we hold on to hope.

Priest: We go out into the world in hope as we face the future knowing that even in the pain of our loss, there is healing and joy.

All: In the assurance of your love, we hold on to hope.

Priest: God our Creator:
All: loves us and tenderly cares for us.

Priest: Jesus Christ our Saviour:
All: redeems us and defends us to the end.

Priest: Holy Spirit dwelling among us:
All: leads us in God's holy way.

Priest: To God Creator, Redeemer, and Life-giving Spirit,
All: be praise and glory today and for ever. Amen.

Ministry Updates Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews. The order of service is on our website (theredeemer.ca).

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website with a link shared on the Facebook page. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

Garden Eucharists this Autumn

Our Garden Eucharists at the home of Karen and Michael Visser will continue throughout the autumn, weather permitting. Please join us on these Saturday afternoons:

Saturday October 22, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday November 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday December 31, at 1:00 p.m.

More information will be forthcoming as the Garden Eucharist Saturday approaches, but we wanted you to mark your calendars now. If you have any questions, please be in touch with Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) or Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Floral Dedications

Floral dedications provide a wonderful way to express our personal thanksgiving and remembrances. If you would like to provide chancel flowers, please email the necessary information to the church office (office@theredeemer.ca).

Prices range from $150 for chancel flowers if there is only one dedication on a Sunday, or $75 if there are multiple dedications.

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Sunday Worship Leadership - Online

There are plenty of ways you can support our Zoom worship service with your gift of time.

Zoom Moderators - you enjoy the technical aspects of how we gather online for worship and help by opening our virtual doors and supporting the musicians, clergy and lay worship leaders. You have grace under pressure to manage when technology throws a curve at you.

Greeters - you welcome the community as we arrive before the start of the service and engage with those who linger afterwards for fellowship.

Readers and Intercessors - help to tell the stories of faith by reading scripture or call the community to prayer by leading the prayers of the people.

Please contact Susan Graham Walker (sgwalker@theredeemer.ca), Part-time Interim Administrator to volunteer or for more information.

Temporary Housing Needed for a Refugee Family

There is hopeful news that the family Redeemer is sponsoring may arrive as soon as three months from now! At this time, the Refugee Committee is looking for temporary housing (up to six weeks) for a family of eight—two parents and six boys, the youngest a baby. As you know, housing is so expensive in Toronto. If you own or know of an empty house or apartment or condo that could be used to house this family for a few weeks, this would be extremely helpful. If you have an idea for housing, please contact Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca) or Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com).

The Redeemer Refugee Committee

We are always looking for new members. We help to orient newcomers by greeting them at the airport, finding language training for adults, registering children in school, furnishing housing, and much more. If you would like to be part of our wonderful committee, please contact Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com) or Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca).

Children, Youth and Families

As we come to the end of the summer, our volunteers are beginning to get ready for the fall for our Children, Youth, and Families Ministries! We have resources available in church for children and all families are invited to participate in worship together.

Our regular Church School and Youth Group gatherings have returned. Children and youth programs start at 9:30 AM and families are encouraged to join the 10:30 service. If you have children or youth who are school aged, feel free to contact Andrew Kuhl to get on our contact list!

Over the summer, Pyjama Prayers (on Zoom) has been taking a break while we dream and plan for new forms of family ministry in the fall. Ideas have been percolating so keep your eyes open for an email for some feedback in the coming week! If you are a family with young children interested in programming, please contact Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Hilary Keachie

Hilary has been our pastoral associate for children, youth and families for more than three years. For the past year, she has been on parental leave. She recently confirmed that she will not be returning to Redeemer at the end of her leave because she and her family have moved to Port Hope. She will be with us on Sunday, October 30 so that we can offer thanks for her ministry amongst us.

How Are You Doing?

Our clergy are available to meet with you to talk and for prayer as is helpful to you. You can contact them through the church office (416-922-4948) or by email (Steven Mackison – smackison@theredeemer.ca, Susan Haig – shaig@theredeemer.ca, Andrew Kuhl akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Pastoral Care Calls

Volunteers from the pastoral care team continue to call members of the Redeemer community to check in with them. Please contact Tony Crosbie (tony.crosbie@sympatico.ca) if you know someone who would benefit from a call from one of the pastoral care team.

Bulletin Announcements

If you have an announcement you would like included in an upcoming bulletin, please send it to Marjorie Wrightson (mwrightson@theredeemer.ca) by Tuesday at 5 PM. Thank you.

Support Us

Last year was one where hopes for a return to life as it once was, seemed within reach and still not yet. Through it all, we have worshiped, learned, served and celebrated together. In the midst of on-going uncertainty, there is still much to be grateful for. If you have not already done so this year, please consider reviewing your financial support of our vital ministry. If your givings need to remain the same or be reduced - thank you for your continuing donations. Your gifts make a difference. If you have the capacity to increase your givings or to give for the first time, we are grateful.

- update your Pre-Authorized Remittance information or sign up for PAR. There is a form on the church website – www.theredeemer.ca/donate
- online through CanadaHelps. There is a link on our website – www.theredeemer.ca/donate
- e-transfer. Please contact the treasurer (treasurer@theredeemer.ca) for more information on how to do this.
- by cheque or cash on the collection plate when we gather for worship in the church
