IN EARTH'S LIFE WE LIVE

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

The Greeting

Susan Haig

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People: And also with you.

The Collect of the Day

Susan Haig

Priest: Creator God, out of the overflowing of your love
you created all things with rich variety and great beauty, and entrusted us with responsibility for them;
grant that we might so value all that you have given into our care that we may strive to sustain its blessings for all people for all time;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, now and forever. Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Heather Bennett

Reader: A Reading from “Embers”, by Richard Wagamese

From our very first breath, we are in relationship., With that indrawn draft of air, we become joined to everything that ever was, is and ever will be. When we exhale, we forge that relationship by virtue of the act of living. Our breath commingles with all breath, and were are a part of everything. That's the simple fact of things. We are born into a state of relationship, and our ceremonies and rituals are guides to lead us deeper into that relationship with all things. Big lesson? Relationships never end; they just change. In believing that lies the freedom to carry compassion, empathy, love, kindness, and respect into and through whatever changes. We are made more by that practice.

A moment of silence is observed

Psalm 148 (George Black)

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain:

Hal-le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah, hal-le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah!

Hallelujah!

Praise God from the heavens;

sing praise in the heights.

Sing praise, all angels,

sing praise, all you heavenly host. Refrain

Hal-le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah, hal-le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah!

Sing praise, sun and moon;
sing praise, all you shining stars.
Sing praise, heaven of heavens,
and you waters above the heavens. Refrain

Let them praise your name, O God;
for you commanded, and they were created.
You made them stand fast for ever and ever;
you gave them a law which shall not pass away. Refrain

O praise God from the earth,
you sea-monsters and all deeps;
Fire and hail, snow and fog,
tempestuous wind, doing God's will; Refrain

Mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars;
Wild beasts and all cattle,
creeping things and flying birds;
Rulers of the earth and all peoples,
princes and all sovereigns of the world;
Young men and women,
old and young together. Refrain

Let them praise your name, O God,
for your name only is exalted,
your splendour is over earth and heaven.
You have raised up strength for your people and praise for all your loyal servants,
the children of Israel, a people who are near you.
Hallelujah! Refrain

Second Reading

Heather Bennett

Reader: A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Romans 8:18-26

The Gospel

Steven Mackison

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

‘Not everyone who says to me, “Lord, Lord”, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only one who does the will of my Father in heaven. On that day many will say to me, “Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many deeds of power in your name?” Then I will declare to them, “I never knew you; go away from me, you evildoers.”’

‘Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell—and great was its fall!’

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Hannah Johnston

We pause for music and meditation

Meditation: “A Liturgy” (Jared Tomlinson)

Redeemer Music Team

In tansured fields the mitred stooks line up in winnow-ward procession.
Congregations of green-vestured
corn make whispering confession.

Evangelizing seeds translate the earth to scripture writ in furrows (each tract proclaimed by whistling winds, acclaimed by clapping wings of crows).

Beneath the branching vaults and nave of pillared pines swells up a spring in pooling rocks: a shady stoup is there, perpetually baptizing.

And choiring birds sing antiphons
as in a chantry or a shrine or sip communally at bowing bushes seeped with berry wine—

as if in nature's liturgy,
creation's office of thanksgiving,
each in its way finds orisons
for saying, thank you for my living.

The Prayers of the People

Karen Turner

Leader: As we centre ourselves in prayer, we are reminded in our first reading that we are in relationship with God and creation. Please feel free to add your petitions and thanksgivings silently, aloud, or in the chat box.

Creator God, we give thanks for all the gifts you have given us. Teach us to reverence your creation. Grant us the wisdom to restore your creation and make it a gift for generations to come. Grant us the humility to use your creation justly and equitably with all who call this island home.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our Prayer

Leader: Ruler God, we pray for the world. We pray especially for those areas that are locked in senseless warfare. We pray for refugees and others displaced by flood, famine, drought, or war. Strengthen the resolve of leaders throughout the world to restore the relationship with creation which has been damaged by our short-sightedness.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our Prayer

Leader: Good shepherd God, be with your church throughout the world, particularly in places where to believe in you invites loss and persecution. Give us the strength to build our house upon a rock, that we may resist the forces that threaten us and your creation. Gather those who have lost their way. Lead us from the wilderness.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our Prayer

Leader: Comforting God, we pray for those in our community who are suffering from inadequate housing, food or employment. We remember the sick and those who care for them.

We give thanks for our Refugee committee, our pastoral care team, our Common Table leadership team and for all those who in their small corner, are doing their bit to make your created world a better place.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our Prayer

Leader: Weeping God, who cried at the tomb of Lazarus, we ask for your presence in times of loss. We give thanks for the life and witness of those who have died.

Give us the ear to listen, the shoulder to lean on, the memories to share with those who mourn.

A long pause is observed. Please give voice to your prayers or add them over in the chat box

Lord in your mercy

All: Hear our Prayer

Leader: Hopeful God, we thank you for the signs of hope you lay before us in troubled times. In the words of the Psalmist, 'We wait for your loving kindness O God, in the midst of your temple'. Be with us as we live our lives in unity with your creation and in a right relationship with you and your creation.

All: Amen

The Peace

Susan Haig

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

The Lord's Prayer

Susan Haig

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Susan Haig

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Holy Jesus we receive you in this moment, giving you thanks and praise that you make yourself present to all your people in the bread and wine of the Eucharist.
Transform our hearts that we may shine as your light in dark places;
Where there is hatred, let us sow love; Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.
And this all, in love for you. Amen.

The Doxology

Susan Haig

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus
for ever and ever. Amen.

Ministry Updates

Hannah Johnston

We welcome Hannah Johnston as our preacher this morning. She has shared some of her story with us.

I was born and raised in the UK, but spent 5 years living and working in New York City, before moving to Canada in 2019. I have a BA in Theology, Ministry & Mission from St. Mellitus College, a Church of England (Anglican) seminary in London, UK, and a Masters in Divinity from Trinity College, University of Toronto.

I spent five years working for St. Lydia's Dinner Church in Brooklyn, where I fell in love with the practice of worship taking place around a meal. In 2017 I was a member of the Leadership Development Cohort of The Reformation Project, an organisation which helps Christians to think theologically about human sexuality, and supports churches in moving towards more affirming theologies of LGBTQ+ people.

Before leaving the UK, I worked for a small but diverse Anglican church on a public housing estate in London, where I was involved in InterfaithCommunity Organising, working together with Jewish and Muslim congregations on issues of social justice.

I previously worked for several years in the fashion industry as a stylist/personal shopper, and I also have a background working with affordable housing tenants and assessing welfare benefits.

I am committed to making church inclusive and fully affirming of LGBTQ+ people, creating fun and caring communities, empowering women, and working with people of other faiths.

I love hot weather, interesting ideas and conversations, wine, and anything with melted cheese. I have a deep and enduring passion for karaoke. I am married to Johnny, and we live in Toronto with two very important cats.

Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews. The order of service is on our website (theredeemer.ca).

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website with a link shared on the Facebook page. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

Garden Eucharists this Autumn

Our Garden Eucharists at the home of Karen and Michael Visser will continue throughout the autumn, weather permitting. Please join us on these Saturday afternoons:

Saturday October 22, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday November 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Saturday December 31, at 1:00 p.m.

More information will be forthcoming as the Garden Eucharist Saturday approaches, but we wanted you to mark your calendars now. If you have any questions, please be in touch with Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) or Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

All Souls Requiem Eucharist

As part of the All Souls Requiem Eucharist on Sunday, October 30, we continue the tradition of reading aloud the names of those faithful departed whom we loved and no longer see. If you would like to add names to the list of those to be remembered, please send an email to Ann \(liturgyanimator@theredeemer.ca\) or add the names to the list that is available in the church at the welcome centre (west wall below the screen).

Floral Dedications

Floral dedications provide a wonderful way to express our personal thanksgiving and remembrances. If you would like to provide chancel flowers, please email the necessary information to the church office (office@theredeemer.ca).

Prices range from $200 for chancel flowers if there is only one dedication on a Sunday, or $100 if there are multiple dedications.

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

In the Community

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

All who attend worship services in the church building are invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Season of Creation 2022

The All Beings Confluence

Season of Creation 2022 sees the return of silk panels from the All Beings Confluence that we first experienced in 2019. As Grant Jahnke noted in an article he wrote from the Gathering that year, “All Beings Confluence is a community-based, interactive arts project that was directly inspired by Carolyn McDade, a composer, social activist and environmentalist whose music has sustained and nourished many over the decades. All Beings Confluence is an ever-expanding installation created by many individuals. It consists of a series of long, narrow sheer panels, each representing a single living Being – perhaps a grasshopper, a bird, a tree, or blue-green algae that first provided our planet with oxygen. The completed panels are installed to fill a whole area and a single panel is never seen by itself. It is always “in community” with other Beings. Everyone is invited to walk amongst them – they move gently with the air currents, merging into different patterns & combinations of colour and light. For a brief moment we can feel ourselves as part of the vast, complex and interconnected community of creation.” (From the Summer 2019 Gathering. Source: <https://allbeingsconfluence.wordpress.com/>. Used with permission.)

Earlier this year the Church of the Redeemer was gifted with 24 of "the Beings." Some of these are present in the sanctuary throughout our Season of Creation.

Temporary Housing Needed for a Refugee Family

There is hopeful news that the family Redeemer is sponsoring may arrive as soon as three months from now! At this time, the Refugee Committee is looking for temporary housing (up to six weeks) for a family of eight—two parents and six boys, the youngest a baby. As you know, housing is so expensive in Toronto. If you own or know of an empty house or apartment or condo that could be used to house this family for a few weeks, this would be extremely helpful. If you have an idea for housing, please contact Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca) or Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com).

The Redeemer Refugee Committee

We are always looking for new members. We help to orient newcomers by greeting them at the airport, finding language training for adults, registering children in school, furnishing housing, and much more. If you would like to be part of our wonderful committee, please contact Henry Krol (henrykrol@yahoo.com) or Alison Colvin (acolvin@sympatico.ca).

Children, Youth and Families

We have resources available in church for children, and all families are invited to participate in worship together. Please find these resources in the back pew on the west side of the church!

Our regular Church School and Youth Group gatherings have returned. Children and youth programs start at 9:30 AM and families are encouraged to join the 10:30 service. If you have children or youth who are school aged, feel free to contact Andrew Kuhl to get on our contact list!

Pyjama Prayers is coming back in the upcoming weeks (!) with a few changes as we enter this new program year. If you are a family with young children interested in programming, please contact Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Hilary Keachie

Hilary has been our pastoral associate for children, youth and families for more than three years. For the past year, she has been on parental leave. She recently confirmed that she will not be returning to Redeemer at the end of her leave because she and her family have moved to Port Hope. She will be with us on Sunday, October 30 so that we can offer thanks for her ministry amongst us.

How Are You Doing?

Our clergy are available to meet with you to talk and for prayer as is helpful to you. You can contact them through the church office (416-922-4948) or by email (Steven Mackison – smackison@theredeemer.ca, Susan Haig – shaig@theredeemer.ca, Andrew Kuhl akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Pastoral Care Calls

Volunteers from the pastoral care team continue to call members of the Redeemer community to check in with them. Please contact Tony Crosbie (tony.crosbie@sympatico.ca) if you know someone who would benefit from a call from one of the pastoral care team.

Bulletin Announcements

If you have an announcement you would like included in an upcoming bulletin, please send it to Marjorie Wrightson (mwrightson@theredeemer.ca) by Tuesday at 5 PM. Thank you.

Support Us

Last year was one where hopes for a return to life as it once was, seemed within reach and still not yet. Through it all, we have worshipped, learned, served and celebrated together. In the midst of on-going uncertainty, there is still much to be grateful for. If you have not already done so this year, please consider reviewing your financial support of our vital ministry. If your givings need to remain the same or be reduced - thank you for your continuing donations. Your gifts make a difference. If you have the capacity to increase your givings or to give for the first time, we are grateful.
