WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

Since 1908, Christians have marked this week, from January 18 (Confession of St. Peter) to January 25 (Conversion of St. Paul) as a time of prayer for Christian Unity.

This year, material has been prepared by the Minnesota Council of Churches. Last year material came from Lebanon, and in 2014 from Canada, all under the auspices of the World Council of Churches. A Canadian group from the Canadian Council of Churches reviews and adapts the resources for our use.

For years, Minnesota has had some of the worst racial disparities in the U.S. Minnesota saw the largest mass execution in the history of the USA in 1862, when 38 members of the Dakota Indigenous people were hanged in Mankato, the day after Christmas, following the US-Dakota War. As they prepared to die, the 38 sang the hymn Wakantanka taku nitawa (Many and Great). More recently, Minnesota has been at the epicenter of racial reckoning. When Covid-19 shut down the world in March 2020, the murder of George Floyd, at the hands of a Minneapolis police officer, Derek Chauvin, drew people from all over the world out onto the streets in unity and righteous anger, to protest the injustice they witnessed on their television screens.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

Susan Haig

Priest: Dear Friends in Christ, we gather here in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. By the waters of baptism, we have become members of the Body of Christ, yet our sins have caused pain and trauma to each other.

All: We have failed to do good.
We have not sought justice in the face of grave oppression, nor heeded God’s command to care for the widow and orphan.

Priest: As we gather, let us reflect on our actions and inactions and learn to do good and seek justice.

All: We need God’s grace to overcome our divisions and to uproot systems and structures that have contributed to the fracturing of our communities.

The Collect of the Day

Susan Haig

Priest: Holy One,
We gather to pray to reinforce the unity that we have as Christians to “open our hearts, that we may be bold in finding the riches of inclusion and the treasures of diversity among us.
We pray in faith
through Jesus Christ, the one who makes one, and lives and reigns with God in the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to Confession and Forgiveness (through the reading of Isaiah 1.12-18)
(Susan Haig / Catherine Emerson)

Priest: We are invited to confess our sins with the words of the prophet Isaiah.

Reader: When you come to appear before me, who asked this from your hand? Trample my courts no more; bringing offerings is futile; incense is an abomination to me (verses 12 – 13a).

All: Forgive us Lord when we come to worship without walking humbly before you.

A moment of silence is observed

Reader: New moon and Sabbath and calling of convocation – I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity. Your new moons and your appointed festivals my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them (verses 13b – 14).

All: We ask forgiveness for the complicity of churches in the evils of colonialism felt around the world.

A moment of silence is observed

Reader: When you stretch out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. (verse 15)

All:* We ask forgiveness for our sins of injustice and oppression that suppress the diverse harmony of your creation.

A moment of silence is observed

Reader: Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. (verses 16, 17)

All:* As we have been washed clean in the living waters of baptism, forgive us anew and reconcile us to one another and to creation.

A moment of silence is observed

Reader: Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. (verse 18)

Priest: May God, in his mercy, free you from your sins so that you can do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with your God.

A moment of silence is observed

Priest: Almighty God hears our prayers, has mercy on us and forgives our sins.

All:* Thanks be to God.

Priest: God of all, our hearts and bodies are thankful for this opportunity to come before you to confess our sins of injustice and divisiveness.

All:* Together we come before you, a holy family, united in the beautiful diversity of your creation: some of us are Indigenous peoples, some of us are descendants of the enslaved, some of us are descendants of the enslavers, some of us are migrants, some of us are refugees, but all of us are part of the one Body of Christ.

Priest: We praise you that through the living waters of baptism our sins, red as scarlet, were washed away and we were healed, as we became part of the beloved community, the family of God. We offer our thanksgiving and praise to you, Creator God.

All: Together on this journey, we celebrate with our hearts and eyes open to understanding and growing in the sacred wisdom that is shared and passed amongst all people. Help us to embrace unity with each other, and remind us that we are of one family gathered by your Holy Spirit, in the midst of your creation. Amen.

Psalm 42 (Plainsong)

Redeemer Music Team

AS THE deer longs for the water-brooks * so longs my / soul for you, O God.

My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God; *
when shall I come to appear before the / presence of God?

My tears have been my food day and night, * while all day long they say to me, / “Where now is your God?”

I pour out my soul when I think on these things: *
how I went with the multitude and led them in / to the house of God,

With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, *
among those / who keep holy-day.

Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why are you so disquiet- / ed within me?

Put your trust in the Holy One; *
for I will yet give thanks to the One,
who is the help of my counte- / nance, and my God.

My soul is heavy within me; *
therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan, and from the peak of Mizar among the / heights of Hermon.

One deep calls to another in the noise of your cataracts; *
all your rapids and floods / have gone over me.

You grant your loving-kindness in the daytime; *
in the night season your song is with me, a prayer to the / God of my life.

I will say to the God of my strength, “Why have you forgotten me? *
and why do I go so heavily while the ene- / my oppresses me?”

While my bones are being broken, *
my enemies / mock me to my face;

All day long they mock me *
and say to me, / “Where now is your God?”

Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why are you so disquiet- / ed within me?

Put your trust in the Holy One; *
for I will yet give thanks to the One,
who is the help of my counte- / nance, and my God.

Second Reading

Murray Bryant

Reader: A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People:* Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Andrew Kuhl

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, “Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.” Then the righteous will answer him, “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?” And the king will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.”

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

Matthew 25:31-40

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Jim Boyles

We pause for music and meditation

Jesus, see the traveler
On their long hard road
See the mother, see the father
See the child, have mercy on the traveler

Lord make soft the strangest bed
Rest the weary feet
Of the mother, of the father
Of the child, have mercy on the traveler

See the mother, see the father
See the child, have mercy on the traveler
See the mother, see the father
See the child, have mercy on the traveler

The Prayers of the People

Catherine Emerson

Leader: With faith and confidence, we come in prayer, before God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit:

Creator God, today we live with the consequences of actions that have made life unsustainable for some and overabundant for others. Teach us to know how to use responsibly the resources you have given to us for the benefit of all and the respect of your creation. The groaning creation cries out to you.

All: Teach us and show us the way.

Leader: Compassionate God, help us repair the harm that we have inflicted upon each other and the divisions we have created among your people. Just as Christ Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit onto the disciples to birth the community of the new creation, send your grace to heal our divisions and gift us with the unity for which Jesus prayed.

All: Teach us and show us the way.

Leader: Christ, the way, the truth and the life, you embodied justice in your ministry on earth by the good that you did, breaking down the walls that divide and the prejudices that imprison. Open our hearts and minds to recognize that though we are many, we are one in you.

All: Teach us and show us the way.

Leader: Holy Spirit, you create anew the face of the earth. The summit of the mountains, the thunder of the sky, the rhythm of the lakes speak to us –

All: Because we are connected.

Leader: The faintness of the stars, the freshness of the morning, the dewdrops on the flower speak to us –

All: Because we are connected.

Leader: The voices of the poor, the oppressed and the marginalized speak to us –

All: Because we are connected.

Leader: Everlasting God, look upon our faces, gathered together in holy community, and send us anywhere you would have us go.

Encourage us by your Holy Spirit to continue to tell our stories, to do good, and to seek justice for the sake of your Creation through our actions.

Sustain us that we may be one, so the world may believe that you sent your only Son Jesus for the life of the world.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Susan Haig

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Susan Haig

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.

You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Susan Haig

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

The diocese is strongly recommending as much as possible that we all wear a mask when in indoor settings, including our church building.

Advisory Board and Board of Management

Each February at Vestry, the meeting where the congregation approves our objectives and annual budget, people are elected to fill vacancies on our two boards. The Advisory Board provides input and guidance to Redeemer’s ministries, programs, and activities. The Board of Management oversees and assists with administrative and financial operations. This renewal process is vital for Redeemer. If you are interested in finding out how to share your time and talents by serving on a board, please contact Richard Van Delft (AdvisoryBoard@theredeemer.ca) or contact David Burt (ManagementBoard@theredeemer.ca), the chair of each of the boards.

This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Children, Youth and Families

We have resources available in church for children and specific resources for Youth. All families are invited to participate in worship together. Please find these resources in the back pew on the west side of the church!

Our regular Church School and Youth Group gatherings have returned. Church School happens during 10:30 service. Children are invited to go downstairs after the collect with our Church School Volunteers for a 30 minute lesson, returning at the Eucharist.

Youth Group is happening on alternating weeks with Youth participating in worship on other weeks. Youth Group is gathering today at 10:30 AM. Floral Dedications Floral dedications provide a wonderful way to express our personal thanksgiving and remembrances. If you would like to provide chancel flowers, please email the necessary information to the church office (office@theredeemer.ca).

Prices range from $200 for chancel flowers if there is only one dedication on a Sunday, or $100 if there are multiple dedications.

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Our Common Life

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

Coffee and cookies are available before the 10:30 service. Why not arrive early for conversation over coffee or tea until 10:20? All who attend worship services in the church building are also invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

2023 Offering Envelopes

Please note on the envelope to whose gift the contribution should be directed. Contributions are non-receiptable.

Undies Sunday

For some members of our Common Table community, being able to get new underwear or long johns is not easy. We have an opportunity to help the Common Table program have a supply to distribute as needed.

On Sunday in January, laundry hampers and baskets will be in the welcome area of the church for us to show our care with underwear!

Bring your donations of new underwear, long johns, and socks for men - all sizes and styles but most particularly large and extra-large - with you to church and let's fill the baskets to overflowing.

Upcoming Events

Book Study Series

The Indigenous Solidarity Working Group is hosting a book study series, to be capped with a meet-the-authors special event.

The new book, Valley of the Birdtail: An Indian Reserve, a White Town and the Road to Reconciliation, by Douglas Sanderson (Amo Binashii) and Andrew Stobo Sniderman is a heart-rending true story about racism and the journey to reconciliation.

We are delighted that on Saturday, February 4, from 1 to 4 PM Douglas Sanderson (Amo Binashii) and Andrew Stobo Sniderman will join us at Redeemer to talk about the book, answer questions and meet members of Redeemer. Registration for the meet the authors event is available now.

This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the impact of the Indian Act and residential schools on Indigenous people and how two communities began the journey of reconciliation together.

Newcomers Lunch

On February 5, 2023 we will have a Newcomers' Lunch after the 10.30 service. This will be an opportunity for those who consider themselves new to the Redeemer to gather together and share some refreshments and fellowship. There will be an opportunity to ask the leadership questions. As a way to enter into dialogue, for those who are willing to share, come prepared to answer the following questions:

What brought you to the Redeemer?

What keeps you here?

What would you like to see at Redeemer that you don't see now?

While this is focused on Newcomers, all are welcome!

Lent at Redeemer

Catechesis 2023

Catechesis (noun): a program of religious instruction, preparing a person for baptism, confirmation or renewal of baptismal vows. Often formatted around a series Questions and Answers.

Coming for Lent our annual Catechesis program where we explore what it means to be an Anglican and what it means to be Christian today. This program will journey through Lent and can help prepare you to mark a faith transition (maybe new, deepening, or growing). Details are coming together and more will be shared in the coming weeks.

If you are interested in baptism, confirmation, reception into the Anglican Church, or renewal of baptismal vows, or just want to come along for the learning journey, keep an eye on this space or email Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca) for more details.

Pancake Tuesday

Save the date!

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, February 21, (the day before Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent), as it is typically a day for feasting with pancakes! We are dreaming up ideas and possibilities for ways we can celebrate together. Keep your eyes out for announcements for our plans.

Refugee Settlement Committee

By the time you read this, they'll be arriving in 4 days!

We picked up the keys on Sunday, January 15. On the 16th, committee members began taking supplies to the house, along with tools for minor repairs and for assembling the 6-foot dining table. The arrival of this large family is becoming a reality, and the enthusiasm is contagious. Not only did spouses of committee members show up to help set up the house, but a full complement of drivers and strong bodies volunteered for furniture move-in day, January 21.

There is background information on the website, but here are the basics: Abdikadir (46) and Asho(38) and their six sons (19, 16, 13, 7, 4 ½, 10 months) have been living in Dadaab refugee camp in eastern Kenya for many years. Abdikadir fled, on his own, from his native Somalia when he was a young teenager, and has lived in refugee camps ever since. He is resilient, resourceful, fluent in English, a leader in his section of the camp.

Please hold them all in your hearts as they prepare for their journey to a new country and a new life.

Updated Needs List:

You, the Redeemer community, have been enormously generous and there are only a few last-minute needs this week. Please contact Susanna Jacob \(andorrajosej@gmail.com\) if you can provide:
