WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Easter Greeting

Andrew Kuhl

Priest: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Priest: The stone is rolled away.

People: Death has been vanquished.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread. Open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

First Reading

Abigail Young

Reader: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: "Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17 (George Black)

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain

I love you, O God, because you have heard the voice of my supplication, because you have inclined your ear to me whenever I called upon you.

The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me;

I came to grief and sorrow.

Then I called upon your name, O God:

"My defender, I pray you, save my life." Refrain

How shall I repay you, O God,

for all the good things you have done for me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation

and call upon your name, O God. Refrain

I will fulfil my vows to you, O God,

in the presence of all your people.

Precious in your sight, O God,

is the death of your servants. Refrain

O God, I am your servant;

I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;

you have freed me from my bonds.

I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving

and call upon your name, O God. Refrain

I will fulfil my vows to you, O God,
in the presence of all your people.
In the courts of God's house,
in the midst of Jerusalem.
Hallelujah! Refrain

Second Reading

Abigail Young

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter of Peter.

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

1 Peter 1:17-23

All: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Steven Mackison

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.” Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?” That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!” Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Lord's Prayer

Andrew Kuhl

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Andrew Kuhl

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.

You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Andrew Kuhl

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews.

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

Upcoming Garden Eucharist Dates

Our Garden Eucharists at the home of Karen and Michael Visser are continuing, weather permitting. Please join us for the next one on Saturday April 29 at 2:00 PM.

More information will be forthcoming as the Garden Eucharist Saturday approaches, but we wanted you to mark your calendars now. If you have any questions, please be in touch with Susan Haig (shaig@theredeemer.ca) or Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Sing and Joyful Be!

Join us for Eucharist as we form an open square and sing in the shape-note tradition of The Sacred Harp hymnbook. Experienced singers will be there to support us as we explore this unique music tradition. Come worship and sing! Sunday, April 30, 7 PM.

Children, Youth and Families

We have resources available in church for children and specific resources for Youth. All families are invited to participate in worship together. Please find these resources in the back pew on the west side of the church!

Church School happens during 10:30 service. Children are invited to go downstairs after the collect with our Church School Volunteers for a 30 minute lesson, returning at the Eucharist.

Youth Group is happening on alternating weeks with Youth participating in worship on other weeks. Weeks when youth are in worship, please feel free to use some of the Youth Resources available, and if you would like to sit together with Finn and Tom in the east transept you are very welcome!

If you have children or youth who are school aged, feel free to contact Andrew Kuhl to get on our contact list for up-to-date information! If you are a family with young children interested in programming for young families, please contact Andrew Kuhl (akuhl@theredeemer.ca).

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Our Common Life

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

Coffee and cookies are available before the 10:30 service. Why not arrive early for conversation over coffee or tea until 10:20? All who attend worship services in the church building are also invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Easter Vigil Party – Thank You!

In Paul's Letter to the Thessalonians, he tells us to "give thanks in all circumstances". And the Redeemer Community and Pastoral Care Committee want to say a big "thank you" to all those who brought offerings of food to the Easter Vigil. Throughout the Bible, God calls us to be thankful and grateful to those who help, and we are very grateful for your support and kindness in bringing food to share and enjoy in our Easter celebration.

How We Gather: Sunday to Sunday and During the Week, and Where We Live

The present Redeemer worshipping community is made up of a number of groups of varying sizes each with its own culture and habits.

There is the 9 AM Sunday Zoom community; there are those who gather in the church or through YouTube at 10:30 AM; a small group gathers at 8 PM on Sunday evenings for Compline; the daily mid-day prayer group meeting six days a week. In addition, the Garden Eucharist community (the only fair-weather group!) meets about once a month and there are Sunday evening services at 7 PM from time to time. Even though we gather at different times, we are connected because we are part of the Redeemer community.

The list of all active members in the parish has been mapped. If you are looking at an electronic version of this bulletin, take a look at where we call home by clicking here.

Welcoming In

Be present to help us to open our doors. We know that when the doors are open people come in. Our small group of Open Doors Docents is inviting others to spend between 12 and 2 PM on Fridays with another member of the Redeemer community to:

- Welcome visitors and the curious
- Read a book between visitors
- Get to know another fellow member of Redeemer – and solve the problems of the world!

Scheduling is flexible and you can sign up for one or more opportunities based on your own schedule. Send an email Susan Graham Walker, parish operations manager to be added to the list in May.

Opportunities and Invitations

Here are some opportunities to become more involved in our community. Details on whom to contact are included with each invitation.

Technical Skills – To improve our communications we are looking for someone to advise us on multi-media streaming. If you can assist, contact the office.

Avenue Road Safety Coalition – Looking for a Redeemer individual interested in cycling and safe travel on our streets for pedestrians and cyclists to be our contact for the Avenue Road Safety Coalition. Contact the office for more information. In addition, anyone can request to be part of the coalition for Avenue Road Safety.

Trans Ministry - Are you interested in contributing to the development of a Trans Ministry here at Redeemer? Honorary Assistant Margaret Rodrigues would appreciate your ideas, suggestions and possibilities. Would you be interested in coming to a discussion after church one Sunday? Please contact them by email or by cell phone at 416-806-9720. All questions and feedback are very welcome.

ZOOM Moderators – In order to add Zoom to the 10:30 AM service we need a team of moderators. If you are interested in this please contact the office.

Redeemer Pilgrims - Hold these Dates!

Just as we did in 2022, the Becoming Pilgrims Committee will be hosting local pilgrimage walks during the summer of 2023. Plan to attend, and learn how to pray with your feet! We will be holding these walks on four Saturdays this summer - May 13, June 10, July 8 and August 12. The walk on May 13 will start at Edwards Gardens - more details to follow! Any questions? Feel free to reach out to Lee Shouldice (lee.shouldice@gmail.com).

Merton and Me: A Living Trinity

Redeemer Explorers is delighted to announce a performance of this one-act, one-man play by New York-based actor, playwright, and retreat leader Douglas Hertler. "Merton and Me: A Living Trinity" is an intimate act of personal storytelling, exploring the struggles of youth, the complexities of faith, and the universal search for meaning and identity in an increasingly chaotic and divided world.

Inspired by Doug's life-changing encounter with the writings of Cistercian monk Thomas Merton, this performance challenges the audience to reflect on two of the most humbling and fundamental of all questions: "Who am I?" and "What am I supposed to do with my life?"

Thomas Merton's many writings on spirituality, civil rights, social, justice, nuclear war, institutional corruption, and inter-religious dialogue remain as resonant today as when he wrote over half a century ago. We are grateful to host this heartfelt theatrical encounter that brings his legacy to life in dialogue with a compelling personal voice.

Please join us for "Merton and Me" on Wednesday, May 10 at 7:30 PM. The play is 80 minutes long with no intermission, and a question-and-answer session with Doug will follow.

Registration will be available soon. The performance is free, but we invite you to consider making a suggested donation of $20 to the Church of the Redeemer. Details about that will be available with registration.

Refugee Settlement Committee

From living in a refugee camp in Kenya to settling in the west end of Toronto has been a major journey for Abdikadir, Asho, and their sons.

After arriving in Canada on January 26, they have gone through the initial stages of registration for banking, schools and ESL, doctors, dentists, and recreation programmes. They have discovered the joy of snow, and the shock of a cold Canadian winter, and are now beginning to see spring in their new country.

Through all these changes, both practical and cultural, they have been supported by the strong team of volunteers that make up the Refugee Settlement Committee. If you are interested in more information about the committee, its work, and volunteer opportunities, contact Alison Colvin.

If you'd like to make a financial contribution to welcoming this family to Canada, you can donate through CanadaHelps and the Welcome Abdikadir and Family to Canada campaign page. CanadaHelps will provide an immediate tax receipt.

Becoming of Age

Audrey Danaher, a long-time member of the Redeemer, has recently published a book, Becoming of Age, which explores women's experiences in the third stage of life, a time of transition with opportunity for a renewed sense of purpose and possibilities. Women can draw on their strengths and life experiences in taking charge of their lives. We begin by creating and building on our own ever-unfolding story. If you are interested in obtaining a copy of Audrey's book, you can reach her by email (becomingofage98@gmail.com).
