WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

Steven Mackison

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People: And also with you.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: O God,
your Son Jesus Christ
has left to us this meal of bread and wine
in which we share his body and his blood.
May we who celebrate this sign of his great love show in our lives the fruits of his redemption;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

✠ The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Heather Bennett

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Remember the long way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments. He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Deuteronomy 8:2-3

All: Thanks be to God.

A moment of silence is observed

Psalm 116.1, 10-17 (George Black)

Redeemer Music Team

Refrain

I will lift up the cup of sal - va - tion.

I love you, O God, because you have heard the voice of my supplication,
because you have inclined your ear to me whenever I called upon you. Refrain

How shall I repay you, O God,
for all the good things you have done for me?
I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call upon your name, O God. Refrain

I will fulfil my vows to you, O God,
in the presence of all your people.
Precious in your sight, O God,
is the death of your servants. Refrain

O God, I am your servant;
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.
I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving
and call upon your name, O God. Refrain

I will fulfil my vows to you, O God,
in the presence of all your people.
In the courts of God's house,
in the midst of Jerusalem. Refrain

During June, National Indigenous History Month, the second reading and the Gospel will be from the First Nations New Testament. The text from the New Revised Standard Version will also be provided.

Second Reading

Heather Bennett

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter from Small Man to the Sacred Family in Village of Pleasure.

Think about it in this way: When we give thanks and drink from the cup Creator has blessed, are we not participating ceremonially in the blood of the Chosen One? When we ceremonially break and eat the frybread, are we not participating in the body of the Chosen One? For we who are many all eat from one piece of frybread. This shows that we are all one body.

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.

The Gospel

Paige Souter

Deacon: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Deacon: He Shows Goodwill tells the Good Story of Creator Sets Free

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creator Sets Free said “I am the living bread from above. The ones who eat this bread will live beyond the end of all days. And this is the bread that I will give as a gift to the world—my human body.” His words caused a great division among the Tribal Members, and they began to argue with one another. “How can this be?” they asked. “Will he give us his flesh to eat?” “I speak from my heart,” he answered. “The only way to have my life in you is to eat the body of the True Human Being and drink his blood. Then, the life of the world to come will be yours, and at the end of all days I will bring your body back to life. My body is true food. My blood is pure drink. The ones who eat and drink my body and blood live in me, and I live in them. In the same way the living Father sent me and gave me his life, the ones who feed on me will have my life. The bread from above is not like the bread our ancestors ate—and then died. This bread

Jesus said, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.’

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, ‘How can this man give us his flesh to eat?’ So Jesus said to them, ‘Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors gives the life of the world to come that never fades away, full of beauty and harmony.”

ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.’

The Lord's Prayer

Steven Mackison

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Parish Census – Who Are We Now?

So much has changed in the world and in our lives these last few years. At Redeemer, we have reimagined how and when we worship in response to where we feel the Spirit is guiding us. There have been many changes in our staff and volunteer complement as well. Amidst all these changes, we have been intentional about taking the time to pause and consider our needs for our future as a community.

It is time to begin the process of discerning Who Redeemer Is as a community and how we think God is calling us to serve. The first step in this process will be a Parish Census. In the next few weeks, we will be asking you to answer some questions that will help us craft a visioning process to discover who we are. More to come on this soon!

The Venerable Steven Mackison
Incumbent

Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews.

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Our Common Life

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

Coffee and cookies are available before the 10:30 service. Why not arrive early for conversation over coffee or tea until 10:20? All who attend worship services in the church building are also invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Coffee Mugs

Redeemer is looking to replenish its supply of coffee mugs. If you could bring one to church to use and then leave, we would be very grateful! If you have a larger supply to give, please let us know – office@theredeemer.ca. Thank you.

Welcoming In

Be present to help us to open our doors. We know that when the doors are open people come in. Our small group of Open Doors Docents is inviting others to spend between 12 and 2 PM on Fridays with another member of the Redeemer community to:

- Welcome visitors and the curious
- Read a book between visitors
- Get to know another fellow member of Redeemer – and solve the problems of the world!

Scheduling is flexible and you can sign up for one or more opportunities based on your own schedule.

Send an email to Susan Graham Walker, parish operations manager to be added to the list.

Opportunities and Invitations

Here are some opportunities to become more involved in our community. Details on whom to contact are included with each invitation.

Communications Expertise – Redeemer needs to develop a communications strategy. If you have an interest or expertise to share to this initiative please connect with Deb Deacon - debbie.deacon@rogers.com or Susan Graham Walker - sgwalker@theredeemer.ca.

Technical Skills – To improve our communications we are looking for someone to advise us on multi-media streaming. If you can assist, contact the office.

ZOOM Moderators – In order to add Zoom to the 10:30 AM service we need a team of moderators. If you are interested in this please contact the office.

Ring the Bell to Remember

Have you always wanted to ring a bell - a church bell? Now is your opportunity. The Indigenous Solidarity Working Group is seeking someone to ring the Church of the Redeemer bell at noon on Mondays June 12 and 19.

Red dresses will be placed outside the church so that along with the bell-ringing we are reminded of and honour the memory of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. Please contact the church office if you can be involved.

The REDress Project

The REDress Project was created by a Metis artist Jaime Black. Each red dress that is hung up acknowledges an Indigenous woman or girl who has been murdered or is missing (MMIWG).

The Church of Redeemer will once again make this acknowledgment in June, by hanging red dresses on the outside of the church. As Jaime Black has said, 'Each dress will become a teacher, educating those who are not aware of the violence against these women and girls. This art gives Indigenous women and girls a voice, as it acknowledges their having been murdered or missing'.

Events Marking National Indigenous History Month

June is National Indigenous History Month in Canada. We welcome our Redeemer community to attend these family-friendly events in downtown Toronto:

Na-Me-Res Pow Wow & Indigenous Arts Festival at Fort York, June 17 and 18. Experience the annual traditional Pow Wow, starting at noon on Saturday, June 17.

National Indigenous Peoples Day celebrations on June 21, the summer solstice, at Toronto City Hall. Learn more about the rich and diverse cultures, voices and experiences of First Nations, Inuit and Metis peoples. Come early for the Sunrise Ceremony at 5:30 a.m.; stay all afternoon for dance, teaching and music.

Happy Pride

Toronto Pride is coming! Redeemerites have two opportunities to join in the civic celebrations.

On Friday evening June 23, the Trans Rally will be starting on Church Street at 7 PM followed by the march starting at about 8 PM. The Trans Anglicans will be gathering at the SE corner of Church and Gloucester after 7.30 PM with our Trans Anglicans banner. We would be delighted if you, your family, friends and allies would come and join in the march with us.

For a map and more information about this excellent event, please visit <https://www.pridetoronto.com/event/trans-pride-rally-march-after-party/>

Proud Anglicans will be in the Pride parade on Sunday, June 25 in the afternoon. We'll meet (and distribute water to others) on the steps of St Paul's Bloor St. Further details for the Pride parade will be shared soon.

Redeemer Explorers – Summer Readers

Redeemer Explorers invites you to join us for our summer book club — Summer Readers. This year we will have an in-person and a Zoom option, both of which will begin meeting the second week of July and will continue for 4 weeks.

This summer we'll be reading Called to Question: A Spiritual Memoir by Joan Chittister, who is a Benedictine sister, prolific writer, and international speaker. In her book she invites us to consider the following questions:

- Who is God?
- Why are we here?
- What does it mean to gain heaven?

We live in a changing world, and our understanding of God changes along with it. Chittister challenges us to think about our modern life and the importance of God in it.

Consult the Redeemer website to register for a group.

Art Exhibit

Joan Holben, a long time Redeemer member, is holding an art exhibition at Rosedale United Church, 159 Roxborough Drive from May 5 – June 25, 2023, Monday to Friday, 9 AM – 5 PM. For more information, contact Joan Holben at joanholben1937@gmail.com or 416-921-8671.
