WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Henry Krol

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Genesis

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And it was so. God made the two great lights - the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night - and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Second Reading

Henry Krol

Reader: A Reading from the Second Letter from Small Man to the Sacred Family in Village of Pleasure.

Last of all, my sacred family members, let your hearts be glad. Mend your ways, walk side by side with each other, sharing the same purpose and living in harmony with one another. In this way, the Great Spirit who gives love and peace will walk with you on the road of life. Welcome each other with a holy kiss. All of Creator's holy ones who are with me send their greetings to you. May the gift of great kindness that comes from our Honoured Chief Creator Sets Frees (Jesus), the Chosen One, along with the love of our Creator remain with you as you walk hand in hand together with the Holy Spirit.

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Gospel

Paige Souter

Deacon: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Deacon: Gift from Creator tells the Good Story of Creator Sets Free.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

It was now time for Creator Sets Free (Jesus) to return to the spirit-world above. It had been forty days since he had come back to life again, So he gathered his followers, one last time, to give them their final instructions.

The remaining eleven of his followers journeyed to Circle of Nations (Galilee). There, at the mountain where Creator Sets Free (Jesus) had told them to go, they met him. When they saw him, they gave to him the honour he deserved – but there were some who still doubted.

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

“All the authority of the spirit-world above and the earth below has been given to me,” he told them. “So now I am sending you into all nations to teach them how to walk the road with me. You will represent me as you perform the purification ceremony with them, initiating them into the life of beauty and harmony represented in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You will then teach them all the ways that I have instructed you to walk in.”

Creator Sets Free (Jesus) then looked into their faces with love and great affection. He lifted his hands towards them and spoke these final blessing words over them.

“Never forget,” he said as he began to rise up into the spirit-world above, “I will always be with you, your invisible guide, walking beside you, until the new age has fully come.”

Deacon: The Gospel of Christ.

The Lord's Prayer

Steven Mackison

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be, to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how. You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,

All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Ministry Updates

Announcements

Do you sometimes wonder where to send an announcement to be shared with the community? We are making your life (and ours!) simpler by having one email address for all those pieces of information that you would like included in the various places we share ministry updates. Please send your details to us at Announcements. (announcements@theredeemer.ca)

Parish Census – Who Are We Now?

So much has changed in the world and in our lives these last few years. At Redeemer, we have reimagined how and when we worship in response to where we feel the Spirit is guiding us. There have been many changes in our staff and volunteer complement as well. Amidst all these changes, we have been intentional about taking the time to pause and consider our needs for our future as a community.

It is time to begin the process of discerning Who Redeemer Is as a community and how we think God is calling us to serve. The first step in this process will be a Parish Census. In the next few weeks, we will be asking you to answer some questions that will help us craft a visioning process to discover who we are. More to come on this soon!

The Venerable Steven Mackison
Incumbent

Worship and Spirituality

During the Week

Mid-day Prayer

Members of our community gather for mid-day prayer Monday through Saturday on Zoom at 12:15 PM. For about 20 minutes we pause to hear scripture read and to pray for what's on our hearts and for the cares and concerns of the world. The Zoom link and list of readings are sent out each week through eNews.

Tuesday Meditation

Tuesday Meditation with Lilian Junkin gathers for 30 minutes in the chancel at 12:15 PM for a peaceful mid-week reflection. If you have any other questions, please contact Lilian (lilian.n.junkin@gmail.com).

Prayer on Wednesday

Each Wednesday morning, a simple order for daily prayer is added to the parish website. This is an invitation to set aside time during the day to read scripture, to reflect and to offer prayers. The order of service for this coming Wednesday will be posted on the website (theredeemer.ca).

On Sunday

Church School Families - A Note from Rev'd Paige

This Sunday come and hang out with me after the 10:30am service. I will be hanging out in the children's area near the front door of the church. Please come by and introduce yourself and your family. I am looking forward to getting to know you. Blessings, Rev' Paige

Intercessions

In the prayers of the people each Sunday, space is left for members of the community to add a name or concern. If you have people or situations that you would like included but are not comfortable giving voice to them, there is a prayer request form on the website (theredeemer.ca). These will be offered silently by one of the priests during the appropriate petition of the intercessions.

Our Common Life

Zoom Coffee and Conversation

After the services, the connection on Zoom will be kept open for a post-service coffee time. We will pause for about five minutes to allow time to grab a cup of coffee, tea or a cool beverage and return for a time of conversation.

Coffee Time at the Church

Coffee and cookies are available before the 10:30 service. Why not arrive early for conversation over coffee or tea until 10:20? All who attend worship services in the church building are also invited to linger for a time of conversation and coffee in the narthex – the space at the back of the church – immediately following the service.

Coffee Mugs

Redeemer is looking to replenish its supply of coffee mugs. If you could bring one to church to use and then leave, we would be very grateful! If you have a larger supply to give, please let us know – office@theredeemer.ca. Thank you.

Welcoming In

Be present to help us to open our doors. We know that when the doors are open people come in. Our small group of Open Doors Docents is inviting others to spend between 12 and 2 PM on Fridays with another member of the Redeemer community to:

- Welcome visitors and the curious
- Read a book between visitors
- Get to know another fellow member of Redeemer – and solve the problems of the world!

Scheduling is flexible and you can sign up for one or more opportunities based on your own schedule.

Send an **email to Susan Graham Walker**, parish operations manager to be added to the list.

Opportunities and Invitations

Here are some opportunities to become more involved in our community. Details on whom to contact are included with each invitation.

Communications Expertise – Redeemer needs to develop a communications strategy. If you have an interest or expertise to share to this initiative please connect with Deb Deacon - debbie.deacon@rogers.com or Susan Graham Walker - sgwalker@theredeemer.ca.

Technical Skills – To improve our communications we are looking for someone to advise us on multi-media streaming. If you can assist, contact the office.

Zoom Moderators – In order to add Zoom to the 10:30 AM service we need a team of moderators. If you are interested in this please contact the office.

Ring the Bell to Remember

Have you always wanted to ring a bell - a church bell? Now is your opportunity. The Indigenous Solidarity Working Group is seeking someone to ring the Church of the Redeemer bell at noon on Monays June 5, 12 and 19.

Red dresses will be placed outside the church so that along with the bell-ringing we are reminded of and honour the memory of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. Please contact the church office if you can be involved.

The REDress Project

The REDress Project was created by a Metis artist Jaime Black. Each red dress that is hung up acknowledges an Indigenous woman or girl who has been murdered or is missing (MMIWG).

The Church of Redeemer will once again make this acknowledgment in June, by hanging red dresses on the outside of the church. As Jaime Black has said, 'Each dress will become a teacher, educating those who are not aware of the violence against these women and girls. This art gives Indigenous women and girls a voice, as it acknowledges their having been murdered or missing'.

Dr. Mike Daley Presents – The James Taylor Story

This last show of the season will feature Will Reid, Greg Wyard and Jill Daley. Mike will recount the life of this legendary singer-songwriter and classics like "Fire And Rain," "You've Got A Friend," "Shower The People" and many more will be performed. It all happens today at 3 PM here at Church of the Redeemer. Please join us! Tickets and info can be found here. Tickets will also be available at the door for $35 cash only.

Sunday Explorations

Redeemer Explorers is pleased to invite you to the first of a series of events downstairs in the Boardroom Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:15. In the fall, look for peer-led discussions of the day's readings, talks by authors of recent books, and more.

But much sooner, today we'll start with a presentation by Carol Scovil, a long-time member of Redeemer. Carol recently returned from three weeks in Nepal with a medical team that offered teaching in local hospitals.

Carol began working in Nepal fifteen years ago as a biomedical engineer, providing wheelchairs adapted for the rural hill country, and visiting patients at home to evaluate and enhance local accessibility.

Redeemer supported Carol in that initial sixteen-month medical mission. Community members have enthusiastically continued to support her work on seven return trips since then. Don't miss this chance to hear Carol share her deep connection to Nepal through photos and stories of her experiences on this most recent trip.

Trans Ministry Meeting

The Rev'd Margaret Rodrigues invites all who are interested in being part of the Trans Ministry that is emerging at Redeemer to join in a meeting in the Boardroom today after service. The meeting will be from noon – 2 PM. Gather a cup of coffee and some cookies and join in.

Redeemer Pilgrims

Our next local pilgrimage walk will be held at the Toronto Islands on Saturday, June 10, 2023.

We will meet at the Jack Layton Ferry Terminal, and take the 10:00 am ferry to Centre Island. We will walk through the flat Toronto Islands, and finish our pilgrimage at approximately 12 noon at The Riviera - Ward's Island Kitchen, where we will stop for lunch. If you can't join us for the walk, plan to join us for lunch!

Our pilgrimage will proceed, rain or shine. Pilgrims may want to secure their tickets for the ferry in advance to avoid what can be a long line at the ferry terminal.

If you are interested in walking, please RSVP to Lee Shouldice at lee.shouldice@gmail.com. This will help us estimate the number of pilgrims who will be at lunch. However, if you haven't RSVP'd, you're still welcome to walk with us.

Learn how to pray with your feet!

Indigenous Solidarity Working Group

Valley of the Birdtail: An Indian Reserve, a White Town and the Road to Reconciliation shines a lens on Canada's relations with Indigenous peoples — from institutionalized racism through to hope for true reconciliation. Take this opportunity to join the conversation about repairing relations with First Nations and how this will impact changes to our legal framework and our future as a nation.

Meet authors and legal experts, Douglas Sanderson (Amo Binashii) and Andrew Stobo Sniderman for a wide-ranging discussion on Saturday, June 10, from 1 to 4 PM. To register, please use this link or visit the ISWG page on the Redeemer website. The session will also be live streamed on Redeemer's YouTube channel (<https://www.youtube.com/@theredeemertoronto9295>).

Proud Anglicans will be in the Pride parade on Sunday, June 25 in the afternoon. We'll meet (and distribute water to others) on the steps of St Paul's Bloor St. Further details for the Pride parade will be shared soon.

Refugee Settlement Committee

Newcomers Abdikadir, Asho, and their sons are adjusting life in Canada. As a measure of their progress, consider how frequently the Refugee Settlement Committee has been meeting. During the first two months, the committee met weekly, with reports of many registrations and numerous appointments – all the immediate needs. In April, we met every other week, with much less to report, and beginning in May, monthly meetings are being planned. The aim of any settlement is that newcomers will learn to navigate their new life more and more independently. There will undoubtedly be further challenges requiring both personal and financial support, but it has been heartwarming to see how successfully this family is managing such a major transition. Please keep them in your prayers and watch for further news. If you are interested in learning more about the committee, its work, and volunteer opportunities, please contact Alison Colvin.

If you'd like to make a financial contribution to welcoming this family to Canada, you can donate through CanadaHelps and the Welcome Abdikadir and Family to Canada campaign page. CanadaHelps will provide an immediate tax receipt.
