WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Gathering of the Community

Steven Mackison

Priest: We are the body of Christ!
 The hand clapping, toe tapping, heart pumping, mouth tasting, arms embracing, justice seeking, hymn singing, love making, risk taking body of Christ!

All: We are the body of Christ!

Priest: Baptized in one Spirit; we are members of one body.

All: Many are varied in gender, colour, sexuality, age, class, and ability, we are members of Christ's beautiful Body.

Priest: None of us can say to another, "I have no need of you."

All: For only together can we find wholeness.

Priest: None of us can say to another, "I will not care for you."

All: For we are connected like muscle and bone.

If one suffers, we all suffer.

If one rejoices, we all rejoice.

Priest: Thanks be to God who in Christ has made us one.

All: Let us worship God. Alleluia!

The Collect of the Day

Steven Mackison

Priest: God, when you called each of us into being, you delighted in your works.
You gifted us with differences that illuminate the breadth of beauty, wisdom, and practices of love in your creation.
In whatever ways we still struggle to accept and celebrate our own unique offerings, free us from narrow thinking that confines, constrains, or condemns your good work in us.
This we ask in the name of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.

✠ Proclamation of the Word

First Reading:

Sylvia Keesmaat

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

First this: God created the Heavens and Earth—all you see, all you don't see. Earth was a soup of nothingness, a bottomless emptiness, an inky blackness. God's Spirit brooded like a bird above the watery abyss.

God spoke: "Light!" And light appeared.

God saw that light was good and separated light from dark.

God named the light Day, he named the dark Night.

It was evening, it was morning - Day One.

God spoke: "Separate!

Water-beneath-Heaven, gather into one place; Land, appear!" And there it was.

God named the land Earth.

He named the pooled water Ocean. God saw that it was good.

God spoke: "Sky! In the middle of the waters; separate water from water!"

God made sky. He separated the water under sky from the water above sky.

And there it was: he named sky the Heavens;

It was evening, it was morning - Day Two.

God spoke: "Earth, green up! Grow all varieties of seed-bearing plants, Every sort of fruit-bearing tree." And there it was.

Earth produced green seed-bearing plants, all varieties,

And fruit-bearing trees of all sorts. God saw that it was good.

It was evening, it was morning - Day Three.

God spoke: "Lights! Come out! Shine in Heaven's sky! Separate Day from Night.

Mark seasons and days and years, lights in Heaven's sky to give light to Earth."

And there it was. God made two big lights, the larger to take charge of Day,

The smaller to be in charge of Night; and he made the stars.

God placed them in the heavenly sky to light up Earth and oversee Day and Night, to separate light and dark.

God saw that it was good.

It was evening, it was morning - Day Four.

God spoke: "Swarm, Ocean, with fish and all sea life! Birds, fly through the sky over Earth!"

God created the huge whales, all the swarm of life in the waters,

And every kind and species of flying birds.

God saw that it was good. God blessed them:

"Prosper! Reproduce! Fill Ocean! Birds, reproduce on Earth!"

It was evening, it was morning - Day Five.
 God spoke: "Earth, generate life! Every sort and kind:
 cattle and reptiles and wild animals—all kinds."
 And there it was: wild animals of every kind,
 Cattle of all kinds, every sort of reptile and bug.
 God saw that it was good.

God spoke: "Let us make human beings in our image, make them reflecting our nature so they can be responsible for the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the cattle, and, yes, Earth itself, and every animal that moves on the face of Earth."

God created human beings; he created them godlike, reflecting God's nature.
 He created them male and female. God blessed them: "Prosper! Reproduce!
 Fill Earth! Take charge! Be responsible for fish in the sea and birds in the air, for every living thing that moves on the face of Earth."

Then God said, "I've given you every sort of seed-bearing plant on Earth
 And every kind of fruit-bearing tree, given them to you for food.
 To all animals and all birds, everything that moves and breathes,
 I give whatever grows out of the ground for food."
 And there it was. God looked over everything he had made; it was so good, so very good!
 It was evening, it was morning - Day Six.

Heaven and Earth were finished, down to the last detail.

By the seventh day God had finished his work.

On the seventh day he rested from all his work.

God blessed the seventh day. He made it a Holy Day

Because on that day he rested from his work, all the creating God had done.

This is the story of how it all started, of Heaven and Earth when they were created.

Second Reading:

Sylvia Keesmaat

Reader: A Reading from The Good Story Continues.

Now there lived a man in Chief Village (Caesarea) whose name was Little Horn (Cornelius). He was a head soldier in the Young Bulls (Italian) band of the People of Iron (Romans). He was a spiritual man who had deep respect for the Great Spirit. He, along with all his family, gave with a big heart to the poor and prayed to Creator at all times. One day, in the middle of the afternoon, he had a sacred vision. He could clearly see a spirit-messenger from Creator coming toward him. "Little Horn (Cornelius)!" the messenger said to him. Little Horn (Cornelius) could only stare at the spirit-messenger and tremble with fear. "What is it you want, Honored One?" he asked the messenger. "Your prayers and gifts of kindness have been remembered. They have risen like sweet-smelling smoke to the Great Spirit. Now you must send messengers to Village of Beauty (Joppa) to find One Who Hears (Simon), who is also named Stands on the Rock (Peter) and ask him to come to your home. He is lodging at a house near the great waters at the home of Hearing Man (Simon), the tanner of hides." After the spirit-messenger who spoke to him had left, Little Horn (Cornelius) called two servants and a trusted soldier from the ones who were under his command. After he told them everything they needed to know, he sent them to Village of Beauty (Joppa). On the next day, as the messengers were traveling and coming close to the village, Stands on the Rock (Peter) climbed up onto the flat roof of the house to send his voice to Creator. It was about midday. He became hungry and wanted something to eat. As they were cooking the food, he fell into a trance and had a sacred vision. He saw an opening in the sky and something like a large, soft blanket that was being lowered to the ground by its four corners. On the blanket were all kinds of four-legged animals, creeping things from the ground, and winged ones who soar in the sky. "Stands on the Rock (Peter), rise up!" a voice said to him. "Kill and eat."

In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian Cohort, as it was called. He was a devout man who feared God with all his household; he gave alms generously to the people and prayed constantly to God. One afternoon at about three o'clock he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God coming in and saying to him, 'Cornelius.' He stared at him in terror and said, 'What is it, Lord?' He answered, 'Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. Now send men to Joppa for a certain Simon who is called Peter; he is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.' When the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his slaves and a devout soldier from the ranks of those who served him, and after telling them everything, he sent them to Joppa. About noon the next day, as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat; and while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by its four corners. In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air. Then he heard a voice saying, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.'

This would have been a hard thing for Stands on the Rock (Peter) to hear, because their tribal law forbade them to ceremonially offer or eat any unclean animal, and many of these animals were unclean or impure. “I cannot, O Honored One!” he answered. “I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.” Then the Voice spoke to him a second time, “What the Great Spirit has made clean, you must not consider impure.” This was repeated three times, and then the blanket was taken right back up into the spirit-world above.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Song: “I’ll Be Your Mirror” (Lou Reed)

I’ll be your mirror
Reflect what you are, in case you don’t know
I’ll be the wind, the rain and the sunset
The light on your door to show that you’re home

When you think the night has seen your mind
That inside you’re twisted and unkind
Let me stand to show that you are blind
Please put down your hands
'Cause I see you

I find it hard to believe you don’t know
The beauty you are
But if you don’t, let me be your eyes
A hand to your darkness so you won’t be afraid

When you think the night has seen your mind
That inside you’re twisted and unkind
Let me stand to show that you are blind
Please put down your hands
'Cause I see you

I’ll be your mirror (reflect what you are)

But Peter said, ‘By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is profane or unclean.’ The voice said to him again, a second time, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’ This happened three times, and the thing was suddenly taken up to heaven.

The Gospel

Paige Souter

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: War Club Tells the Good Story of Creator Sets Free.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creator Sets Free (Jesus) journeyed into the territory of Rock Land (Tyre) and Hunting Grounds (Sidon). He wanted to keep away from the crowds, so he found a house to stay out of sight but was unable to stay hidden. A woman came to him who had a daughter with an unclean spirit in her. As soon as she heard about Creator Sets Free (Jesus), she came and humbled herself before him. She was an Outsider from the territory along the coastline of the Great Middle Sea (Mediterranean). She begged Creator Sets Free (Jesus) to force the evil spirit out of her daughter. “The children should be fed first,” he said. “It is not right to take the children’s portion and throw it to the dogs.” “But Wisdomkeeper,” she answered back, “even the dogs under the table can eat the children’s crumbs.” “Because your words are well chosen,” he replied, “you may return home. You will find that the evil spirit has left your daughter.”

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, ‘Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.’ But she answered him, ‘Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.’ Then he said to her, ‘For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter.’

Prayers of the People

Henry Krol

Leader: Holy One, we believe that your love will find a way to heal our wounded world, and that suffering and poverty will end. For we believe in your persistent love. God, help us be your love in the world. Send us to those who suffer.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe that you have made us who we are, in your image, a beautiful community of race and culture and sexual identity. You declared us ‘good’. We celebrate this diversity, for we believe in your creative imagination. God, help us make it safe for all to live with integrity, for barriers to tumble down, and for all to live in peace. Send us out to change the world.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe we are all members of one body. We share a heart with those who suffer violence, who live in fear, who are cast out because of their sexuality or any other reason. We ache with them, for we believe that you love without exception.

God, help us reach out in love. Send us into the world proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe that we are not yet perfected. We fear. We judge. We cause harm by our action and our inaction. But we still turn to you for help, for we believe in your forgiveness.

God, help us to receive your forgiveness. Send us into the world to forgive.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe that the liberation of those in captivity did not end with Moses leading enslaved peoples out of Egypt, it did not end with Jesus' death and resurrection, but even today you are still pulling humanity out of darkness into the light. For we believe in the Reign of God on earth.

God give us courage and stamina. Send us into the world to lead.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe it is not too late for those filled with hate to learn to live in love. For we believe in your heart-transforming power.

God, help us love even those who hate. Send us out with love for all.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe that our prayers do matter, and so we offer them now for the people and places that long for relief from suffering...

We pause for one minute or more for people to add their own intercessions, silently or aloud.

Leader: For we believe in the power of prayer.

God, remind us that we are not alone. Send us into the world to be a soft landing place for all who suffer.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe in gratitude. We offer thanks to those brave souls who risk much for others. We offer thanks for all the moments of grace that sustain us, which we name now, silently or aloud.

We pause for one minute or more for people to add their own intercessions, silently or aloud.

Leader: For we believe that your love and grace surround us on every side.

God, give us eyes to see your goodness in the world around us. Send us into the world in gratitude.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

Leader: We believe that church is an imperfect but well-intentioned collection of souls. Even though we often fail to understand your Gospel, even though we often lack the courage to take risks for justice, even though we have not always welcomed your beloved outcasts, still we see that you have not abandoned us. For we believe that you still hope in us.

God, help us to be a better community. Send us into the world as the life-changing, liberating church you imagine. All this we ask in the name of your Holy Trinity.

All: Come Creation, come; hear us as we pray. Only in the love, love that lifts us up!

The Lord's Prayer

Priest: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
 now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be, to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how. You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

Healing

For those desiring prayers for healing, please contact one of the clergy present privately in the chat.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,
All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Announcements

Concluding Song: “Somewhere Over the Rainbow” (H. Arlen, E.Y. Harburg, arr. Paul Langford) Redeemer Music Team

The Dismissal

Paige Souter

Priest: May God's gifts of love transform and enliven us that we may live lives of thanksgiving. Alleluia!

People: May God's presence among us provoke such longing for God's realm that we will never be satisfied until the whole earth knows God's justice, peace, and love. Alleluia!
