WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

✠ The Easter Greeting:

Steven Mackison

Priest: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Priest: May his grace and peace be with you.

People: May he fill our hearts with joy.

The Collect of the Day

Steven Mackison

Priest: God unheld by word or wall:
 lift us from dullness and cynical contempt;
 make us ready for your Spirit of transforming power;
 and turn our hearts to the mending of the world,
 through Jesus Christ, the name above all names.

People: Amen.

✠ Proclamation of the Word

First Reading:

Reader: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Heather Bennett

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?” He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them.

They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

Reader: The word of the Lord.

Acts 1.1-11

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 47 (George Black)

Redeemer Music Team

Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with a cry of joy.
For the Most High is to be feared;
the Ruler of all the earth. Refrain

Who subdues the people under us,
and the nations under our feet.
Who chooses our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob beloved of God. Refrain

God has gone up with a shout,
the Most High with the sound of the ram's-horn.
Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our Sovereign sing praises. Refrain

For God rules over all the earth;
sing praises with all your skill.
God reigns over the nations;
God sits upon the highest throne. Refrain

The nobles of the peoples have gathered together with the people of the God of Abraham.
The rulers of the earth belong to God,
to the One who is highly exalted. Refrain

Second Reading:

Heather Bennett

Reader: A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

Ephesians 1.15-23

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Paige Souter

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you - that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.” Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

Priest: The Gospel of Christ.

Luke 24.44-53

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayers of the People

Abigail Young

Leader: On this day of the Ascension of Christ, let us pray with amazement, wonder, awe, and astonishment. Joining Christ who intercedes for all the world before God, let us offer our prayers to God.

O God, we stand amazed; for Christ ascended from the earth in order to be everywhere at once. We are in awe; for in leaving, Jesus has not left us alone. We thank you, O God, for the life of your Son. Turn our eyes continually to see, to gaze with wonder at your miraculous ways.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: Turn the eyes of your people to see signs of Jesus everywhere. Show us where he is working for freedom, peace, and justice.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: Turn the eyes of your church to see the places in which Christ dwells with those who are marginalized, victims of violence and war, and experiencing poverty, housing and food insecurity. Help us to see the body of Christ, wounded and yet bright with the light of the Spirit.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: Turn the eyes of the leaders of nations to envision a new world in which peace and harmony reign. Turn the eyes of all in power to see the oppressed and the needy. For all who live by your inner sight, we give thanks.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: Turn the eyes of all gathered here to see beyond this place. Help us to look toward our glorified Lord, and then to look back anew.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: We have much on our hearts today, joys and cares for the world, for our community, for our family, friends and neighbours. Help us to hold all in prayer.

Please add your prayers either silently or aloud.

Leader: O God of wonder,

All:* Let our prayers rise up.

Leader: O God, keep us in the spirit of amazement. Keep us believing when we cannot see; keep us hoping while we wait; keep us looking for your presence. Fix our eyes on the glorious one who ascended to intercede, who will come in greatest glory, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Steven Mackison

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be,
to receive Christ, in communion with the saints,
and the gathering of God's people, unseen and yet present with us now.

*For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion
– not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.*

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Doxology

Steven Mackison

Priest: Glory to God,
All: whose power working in us
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus
for ever and ever. Amen.
