WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER!

We are in the heart of downtown Toronto, and we gather to celebrate on the traditional lands of the Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Anishinaabe Nations, including the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Our beautiful building connects us to the rich heritage of our city while also drawing us deeper into the roots of our Anglican tradition. Just as the streetscape around us has evolved over the years, our members have changed to reflect the growing, vibrant and progressive Christian community found at the Redeemer today. We come from a variety of faith traditions (and sometimes no faith tradition at all), and we like it that way. We are students, workers, retired, homeless, not limited by sexual orientation, gender identity or personal history. We are at the very beginning of our life with Jesus, and we are deeply steeped in a life complicated by faith. We open our doors to worship God and to learn about Jesus, and how all of this might just transform our lives.

Why Christmas? Why do we gather to sing familiar carols and hear words from scripture? Why do we come forward to receive a morsel of bread and a sip of wine or a blessing? Why this moment? Sometimes we don't know what brings each of us here, now. Sometimes it is a fleeting feeling and at others it is something deeply moving. Words like joy, hope, peace help to name those experiences; Words like longing, belonging, seeking to hold those feelings. Why Christmas? Because in this moment, God invites us to draw near. To see the babe born so long ago and born anew for us this night. God invites us to see Love. Love fragile and new and yet Love strong and as old as the ages. Come. Draw near. Love – Jesus – is here. For you.

May this Christmas night be a blessing to you.

Christmas Eve concludes our waiting for the coming of Jesus. Tonight's service ends with the beginning of a new hope for all of creation as God joins us in human form. Let's be present as we enter Christmas.

As the liturgy unfolds, enjoy the margin notes as a brief explanation and commentary, making the words more understandable, and meaningful for worship.

Station at the Crèche

Priest: The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. Alleluia!
All: And we beheld his glory. Alleluia!

Priest: Most merciful and loving God, you have made this night holy by the incarnation of your Son Jesus Christ, and by the child-bearing of the Blessed Virgin Mary:
Grant that we your people may enter with joy into the celebration of this day, and may also rejoice for ever as your adopted children;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Procession (from Latin "processio" meaning "marching forward") is where those who lead us in the service move to the back of the church (the "nave") and arrive at the front (the "chancel"). It is symbolic of our journey through this earthly life.

The Crèche (French for "crib") is the scene representing Jesus' birthplace, a barn behind an inn in Bethlehem. We pause at the Crèche, which represents our own journey to see the baby.

Processional Hymn: #118 (Common Praise) "O Come All Ye Faithful" (v 5)All sing

5. Yea, Lord we greet thee, born this happy morn-ing; Je-sus, to thee be glo-ry given; Word of the Fa-ther, now in flesh appear-ing: O come let us a-dore him, O come let us a-dore him, O come let us a-dore him, Christ the Lord.

Text: St. 5, John Francis Wade (1711-1786), st. 5, tr. Frederick Oakley (1802-1880). Music: ADESTE FIDELES. Melody attrib. John Francis Wade (1711-1786), alt.

Pronounced "CALL-ect", the Collect of the Day is the prayer we say that unites us in worship and praise. It focuses on the theme of the day and "collects" us to the service.

God works wonders. The prophecy of Isaiah points to a future kingdom in which the oppressed are liberated. While the text was originally interpreted to refer to Hezekiah then Josiah, in the Christian tradition, we interpret this text as the coming of the messianic king, Jesus.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: Eternal God, this holy night is radiant with the brilliance of your one true light. As we have known the revelation of that light on earth, bring us to see the splendour of your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

✠ Proclamation of the WordFirst Reading:Please be seatedReader:* A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness - on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Text: Joseph Mohr (1792-1848); tr. John Freeman Young (1820-1885). Music: STILLE NACHT. Melody Franz Xaver Gruber (1787-1863), alt.; humm. Carl H. Reinecke (1824-1910)

Second Reading:

Reader: A Reading from the Letter of Paul to Titus.

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

Titus 2.11-14

All: Thanks be to God.

A moment of silence is observed

Grace is an ever-acting communication of love. The writer of Titus describes Jesus as God's gift of grace to the world. Having received this gift, do we live a grace-based life?

The Sequence Hymn/Song (from the Latin sequentiae, “following”) is a hymn/song that is sung after the second reading and before the reading of the Gospel.

Sequence Hymn: #126 (Common Praise) “Away in a Manger”

All Sing

1. A - way in a man - ger, no crib for a bed,
2. The cat - tle are low - ing, the ba - by a - wakes,
3. Be near me Lord Je - sus; I ask you to stay the lit - tle Lord Je - sus laid down his sweet head.

but lit - tle Lord Je - sus, no cry - ing he makes.
close by me for ev - er and love me, I pray.

The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
I love you, Lord Je - sus— look down from on high Bless all the dear chil - dren in your ten - der care, the lit - tle Lord Je - sus a - sleep on the hay.

and stay by my side un - til morn - ing is nigh.
and fit us for heav - en to live with you there.

Text: American (19th cent.). Music: CRADLE SONG. William James Kirkpatrick (1838-1921), adapt.

We turn and face the Gospel as it is processed to the midst of the gathered community.

We do this as a sign of respect and to symbolize that its message is at the centre of our lives and its truth is always before our eyes.

The Gospel

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.' And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!'

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Litany of the Incarnation

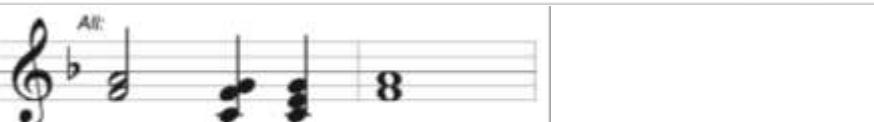

Please rise

Cantor:

In joy and humility let us pray to the Creator of the universe, say-ing

All:

Lord, grant us peace.

Cantor:

Hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the good news of our salvation brought to Mary by the angel,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the mystery of the Word made flesh,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the birth in time of the timeless Son of God,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the manifestation of the King of glory to the shepherds and magi,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

This is a love story. A story of God's love for creation. A story of a mother's love for her son. A story of our love for God.

The homily (from Greek "homilia", meaning "conversation") or sermon, gathers the themes of the readings and articulates what they meant for its audiences, and what they mean for us today.

Litany (Latin "litania" meaning "prayer") of the Incarnation (Latin "incarnationem" meaning "being made flesh") is our collective prayer for this day. Please use the silence to add any prayers, silently or aloud.

Cantor:

All:

Hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the submission of the maker of the world to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

By the baptism of the Son of God in the river Jordan,
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

Grant that the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ;
hear us, O Lord, grant us peace.

Text: BAS. Music: George Black, used with permission.

How much our world needs peace! Just as Jesus, the Prince of Peace, said to his disciples, "Peace I leave with you" so we share the peace with each other, through a nod, a handshake, or by raising our hand in the peace symbol.

The Peace

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All: And also with you.

Offertory Hymn: #135 (Common Praise) "Shepherds in the Field Abiding"

All sing

Text: French trad.; tr. George Ratcliffe Woodward (1848-1934), alt. Tr. © Mowbray (an imprint of Cassell plc., London).
Music: IRIS: Melody French; arr. Martin Shaw (1875-1958). Arr. © Oxford University Press.

As we sing the Offertory Hymn, we have the opportunity to worship God by giving from the abundance of what we have. This is not obligatory, but is another way of expressing our love of each other and our community, and our gratefulness for all that God has given us.

The Eucharist (Greek for "thanksgiving") is a sacramental act of worship where we share bread and wine. A sacrament is "an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace." Also known as "Communion" it is central to our faith and is practiced in most Christian churches in different forms. In the Eucharist we recall who Jesus Christ was, and the sacrifice he made for us on the cross.

✠ The Holy Eucharist

Prayer Over the Gifts

Priest: Source of light and gladness, accept all we offer on this joyful feast.
May we grow up in him who unites our lives to yours;
for he is Lord now and for ever. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
 we give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord, who in the mystery of his incarnation was made perfect man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother;
 in him we have seen a new and radiant vision of your glory.
 Therefore with all the angels of heaven, we lift our voices and sing our joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your name:

Sanctus

All sing

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, Ho - ly God of Power and might. Heaven and Earth are full of your glo - ry, glo-ry to You O

Lord most high. Bless-ed is He who comes in the name of the Lord..

Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Sanctus (from the Latin word "holy") is an ancient hymn that is sung during the Eucharistic Prayer. It is adapted from Isaiah's vision of the greatness of God, and from Matthew, where the people called out "Hosanna!" when Jesus entered Jerusalem.

Priest: We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love
you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil,
and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death,
a death he freely accepted,
our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples,
and said, “Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them,
and said, “Drink this, all of you:
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore, Father, according to his command.

All:
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Priest: and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

The Eucharistic Prayer today is Prayer 3 from the Book of Alternative Services:
Anglican Church of Canada

Priest: In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ,
and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your children;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
the firstborn of all creation,
the head of the Church,
and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father,
now and for ever.

All: Amen.

When asked by his disciples how to pray, Jesus gave them these simple words which we refer to as "The Lord's Prayer." Found in both Matthew and Luke, this prayer captures the essence of our relationship with God and with one another.

The Lord's Prayer

Priest:

People:

As our Sa-viour taught us let us pray. Our Fa-ther in heav-en hal-lowed be your name your king - dom come, your will be done, on earth as in heav - en.
Give us to - day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us.
Save us from the time of trial and de - liv - er us from e - vil.
For the king-dom, the pow-er, and the glo-ry are yours, now and for ev-er. A - men.

MUSIC: McNeil Robinson © 1979. Theodore Presser Co.

The Breaking of the Bread

Priest: We break the bread of life, and that life is the light of the world.

All: God here among us,
light in the midst of us,
bring us to light and life.

Priest: The gifts of God for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Fraction Song: “The Sleepy Song” (A Cree Lullaby) (Sherryl Sewepagaham)

Nipa, kisâkihitin

Go to sleep, I love you.

Composer Sherryl Sewepagaham is Cree-Dene from the Little Red River Cree Nation in Alberta. She writes “This lullaby is inspired by one that my great-grandmother sang to my father when he was a child. While he no longer remembers the song, he speaks of the memory of being sung to as he was swung in a traditional baby swing called wîwîp’son. This lullaby was created in the spirit of my great-grandmother’s lullaby to soothe the spirit. The rattles in the music represent the swishing sound heard by babies in the womb of their mother.”

The Giving and Receiving of Communion

Priest: Dear friends, I invite you in this moment, wherever you may be, to receive Christ, in communion with the saints, and the gathering of God’s people, unseen and yet present with us now.

For those of us participating at home, it is a strange experience to be invited to Communion – not through the physical bread and wine we can touch and taste – but a Spiritual Communion with the God who comes to meet us wherever we are.

*There are no special words or prayers for this, all the Church has ever thought necessary is genuine true desire, lively faith, and genuine love. Come honestly before God the way you know how.
You may wish to pray quietly this prayer to help you:*

One: Lord, you stand at the door of my heart and knock.
You wait for me and only I can let you in.
I believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill me with your presence.
Feed me with your body and unite me in your blood, that I may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

The Communion

*All in the church are invited to come forward to receive communion.
If you need a gluten-free wafer, please indicate this to the priest.*

If you would like to receive a blessing rather than communion, please cross your arms as shown in the picture and the clergy will be pleased to offer you a blessing.

Intinction is the practice of dipping the bread or wafer into the wine when receiving communion. This practice is not allowed in churches in the Diocese of Toronto, including the Church of the Redeemer, for health and safety reasons.

The Fraction Song (from the Latin “fractio” meaning “to break”) is a song sung during the Eucharist when the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Jesus' life given for others inspires us to see our own lives as a gift to be shared. The resurrection affirms that in letting go of what we are afraid to lose, we are transformed and made new.

from the grave.

Motet (from the Latin "motectum") means "movement" and refers to the movement of the voices in this form of vocal composition.

Motet: "Hodie Christus natus est!" (Francis Poulenc)

Hodie Christus natus est: Hodie Salvator apparuit:
 Hodie in terra canunt Angeli, laetantur Archangeli
 Hodie exsultant justi, dicentes:
 Gloria in excelsis Deo.
 Alleluia.

Today Christ is born: Today the Savior appeared: Today on Earth the Angels sing, Archangels rejoice: Today the righteous rejoice, saying: Glory to God in the highest. Alleluia.

Prayer after Communion

Priest: Father of all, tonight you have united earth and heaven
in sending your Son to take our human nature.
May we who have tasted heavenly things share in the life of his eternal kingdom.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

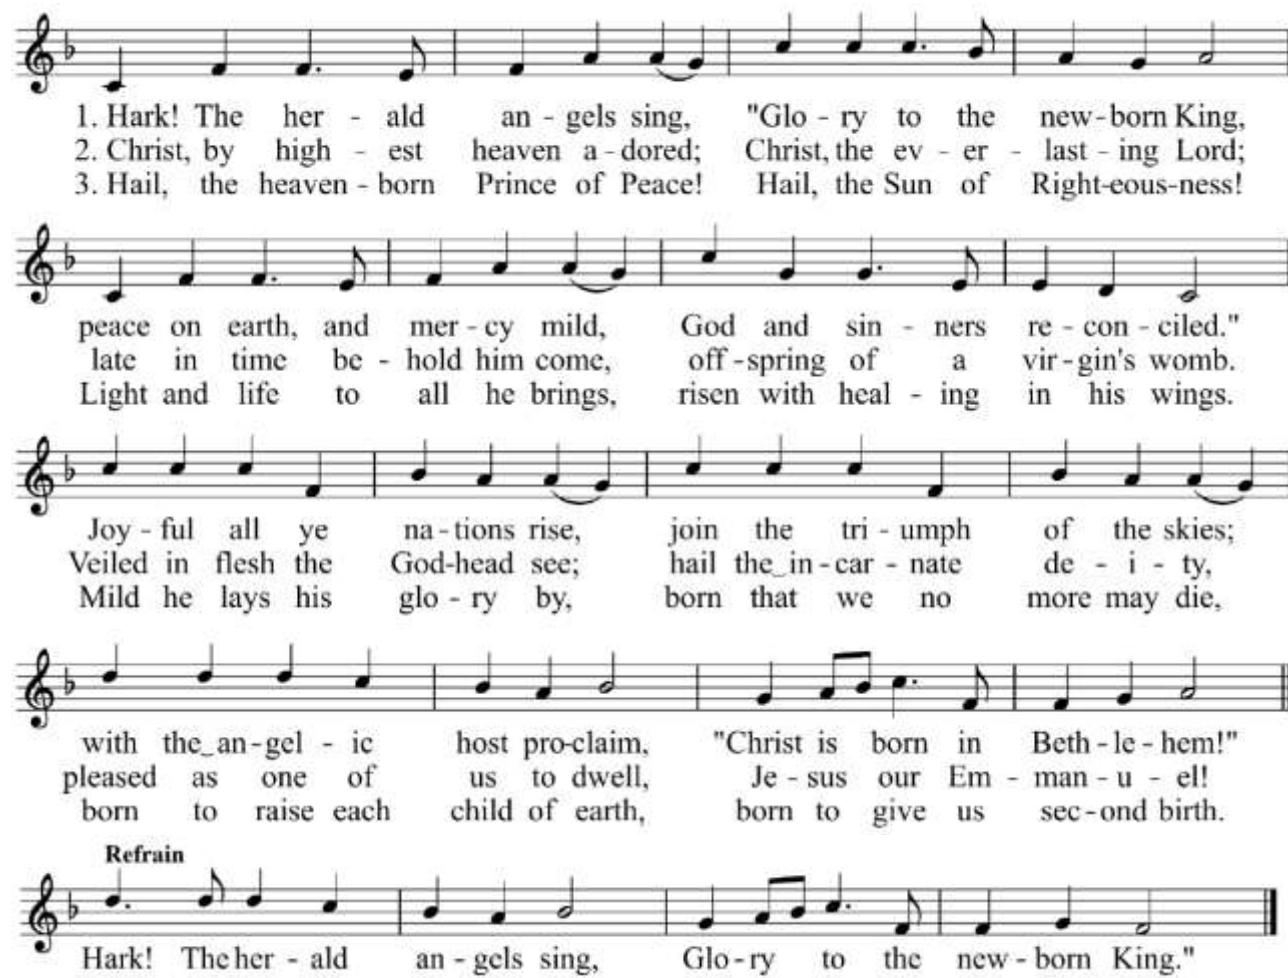

All: Amen.

The Doxology

Priest: Glory to God,
All: whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Departing Hymn: #138 (Common Prayer) "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing"

The Doxology
(from the Greek
"doxaloxia" meaning
"words of glory") is our closing prayer.
We say this to, for, and with one another, to proclaim that worshipping God together has made a difference in our lives.

God sent Jesus to live and dwell among us. So, in the Dismissal, we are charged to joyfully go out beyond the four walls of the church to serve the Lord in a world that so greatly needs God's peace and love.

The Dismissal

Priest: Go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia!

All: Thanks be to God. Alleluia!
