Canticle 3, Song of Thanksgiving

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

Ring out your joy, for the Ho - ly One of Is - ra - el is in your midst.

1   2   3   4

(1) Surely it is God who saves me;
(2) I will trust in God and not be afraid.
(3) For the Most High is my stronghold and my sure defence,
(4) and God will be my Saviour.   R.

(1) Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing
(2) from the springs of salvation.
(1) And on that day you shall say,
(2) Give thanks to the Most High and call upon God's name;
(3) make God's deeds known among the peoples;
(4) see that they remember that God's name is exalted.   R.

(1) Sing the praises of the Most High, for God has done great things,
(2) and this is know in all the world.
(3) Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy,
(4) for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.   R.
