- (1) O God, how manifold are your works:
 (2) in wisdom you have made them all;
 (3) the earth is full of your creatures.
 (1) Yonder is the great and wide sea
 (2) with its living things too many to number,
 (4) creatures both small and great. R.

- (1) There move the ships,
 (2) and there is that Leviathan,
 (3) which you have made for the sport of it.
 (1) All of them look to you
 (2) to give them their food in due season.
 (3) You give it to them; they gather it;
 (4) you open your hand,
 and they are filled with good things. R.

- (1) You hide your face, and they are terrified;
 (2) you take away their breath,
 and they die and return to their dust.
 (3) You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
 (4) and so you renew the face of the earth. R.

- (1) May your glory endure for ever;
 (2) may you rejoice in all your works.
 (3) You look at the earth and it trembles;
 (4) you touch the mountains and they smoke. R.

- (1) I will sing to you as long as I live;
 (2) I will praise my God while I have my being.
 (1) May these words of mine please you;
 (2) I will rejoice in you, O God.
 (3) Praise God, O my soul.
 (4) Hal-lē-lujah! R.
