

Psalm 66.1-8

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

Cry out with joy, all peo-ple on earth; sing and praise God's name.

1 2 3 4 5 6

- (1) Be joyful in God, all you lands;
- (2) sing the glory of God's name; sing the glory of Göd's praise.
- (3) Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!"
- (4) because of your great strength your enemies cringe before you.
- (5) All the earth bows down before you,
- (6) sings to you, sings out your name." R.

- (1) We will come and see your works, O God,
- (2) how wonderful you are toward äll people.
- (3) You turned the sea into dry land,
- (4) so that they went through the water on foot,
- (5) In your might you rule for ever;
- (6) your eyes keep watch over the nations; let no rebel rise up against you. R.

- (1) Let all peoples bless you, O God;
- (3) make the voice of your praise resound.
- (5) You hold our souls in life,
- (6) and will not allow our feet to slip. R.
