

Psalm 104.1-6,25,30-31

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

O bless our God, O my soul.

1 2 3 4

- (1) Praise our God, O my Soul; My God, how excellent is your greatness!
- (2) You are clothed with majesty and splendour.
- (3) You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak
- (4) And spread out the heavens like a curtain. R.

- (1) You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above;
- (2) you make the clouds your chariot, and ride on the wings of the wind.
- (3) You make the winds your messengers
- (4) and flames of fire your servants. R.

- (1) You have set the earth upon its foundations,
- (2) so that it never shall move at any time.
- (1) You covered it with the deep as with a mantle;
- (2) the waters stood higher than the mountains.
- (3) O God, how manifold are your works!
- (4) In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. R.

- (1) You hide your face, and they are terrified;
- (2) you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
- (3) You sent forth your spirit, and they are created;
- (4) And so you renew the face of the earth. R.
