George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

God's stead - fast love en - dures for e - ver.

1 2 3 4

(1) We give you thanks, O God, for you are good,

(2) and your mercy endured for ever.

(1) Let all those whom you redeemed proclaim

(2) that you rescued them from the hand of the foe.

(3) You gathered them out of the lands;

(4) from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south. R.

(1) Some went down to the sea in ships

(2) and plied their trade in deep waters;

(1) They beheld your works

(2) and your wonders in the deep.

(3) Then you spoke, and a stormy wind arose,

(4) which tossed high the waves of the sea. R.

(1) They mounted up to the heavens
and fell back to the depth;

(2) their hearts melted because of their peril.

(3) They reeled and staggered like drunkards

(4) and were at their wits' end. R.

(1) Then they cried to you in their trouble,

(2) and delivered them from their distress.

(1) You stilled the storm to a whisper

(2) and quieted the waves of the sea.

(3) Then were they glad because of the calm,

(4) and you brought them to the harbour
they were bound for. R.

(1) Let them give thanks to you for your mercy

(2) and the wonders you do for your children.

(3) Let them exalt you in the congregation of the people

(4) and praise you in the council of the elders. R.
