

Psalm 19.7-14

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

Sweet - er than hon - ey, than hon - ey in the comb;

are the judge - ments of God.

- (1) The law of God is perfect and revives the soul;
- (2) the testimony of our God is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- (3) The statutes of our God are just and rejoice the heart;
- (4) the commandment of God is clear and gives light to the eyes. Refrain.

- (1) The fear of God is clean and endures for ever;
- (1) the judgements of our God are true and righteous altogether.
- (2) More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold,
- (2) sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- (3) By them also is your servant enlightened.
- (4) and in keeping them there is great reward. Refrain.

- (1) How can I tell how often I offend?
- (1) cleanse me from my secret faults.
- (2) Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me;
- (2) then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offence.
- (3) Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
- (4) O God, my strength and my redeemer. Refrain.
