

Psalm 147.13-21

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

Praise God, O Zion.

1 2 3 4

- (1) Worship your God, O Jerusalem;
- (2) praise the Holy One, O Zion,
- (3) Who has strengthened the bars of your gates;
- (4) and blessed your children within you. R.

- (1) You have established peace on our borders;
- (2) and satisfied us with your finest wheat.
- (3) You send out your command to the earth,
- (4) and your word runs very swiftly R.

- (1) You give new snow like wool;
- (2) you scatter hoarfrost like ashes.
- (3) You scatter your hail like bread crumbs;
- (4) who can stand against your cold? R.

- (1) You send forth your word and melt them;
 - (2) you blow with your wind, and the waters flow.
 - (1) You declare your word to Jacob,
 - (2) your statutes and judgments to Israel.
 - (3) You have not done so to any other nation;
 - (4) to them you have not revealed your judgments.
- Hallelujah! R.
