

Psalm 119.137-144

George Black

Introduction. Cantor sings refrain. All repeat refrain. Cantor sings verses. All sing refrain after each group of verses. In the psalm-tone the singer leaves the reciting note on the underlined word or syllable.

Introduction

- (1) You are righteous, O God,
(2) and upright are your judgements.
(3) You have issued your decrees
(4) with justice and in perfect faithfulness. R.

- (1) My indignation has consumed me,
(2) because my enemy forgets your words.
(3) Your word has been tested to the uttermost,
(4) and your servant holds it dear. R.

- (1) I am small and of little account,
(2) yet I do not forget your commandemnts.
(3) Your justice is an everlasting justice
(4) and your law is the truth. R.

- (1) Trouble and distress have come upon me,
(2) yet your commandments are my delight.
(3) The righteousness of your decrees is everlasting;
(4) grant me understanding that I may live. R.
